PEOPLE SUPPORTING PRESIDENT WILSON

Views of Citizens of United States, as Reflected in the Press

GERMAN PAPERS ONLY ONES OUT OF LINE

United States, Without Passion, Awaits Reply, Says New York Sun

New York, May 14.—President Wilson's note to Germany was commented upon editorially through the United States to-day with distinct praise and approbation. Excerpts from editorials from some of the leading papers as indicating American sentiment follow:

New York Times—It is the great diplomatic achievement of the note that it puts upon Germany the choice not only of what her reply shall be, but of what is to follow. The president's eloquent appeal to her great traditions, to her sense of honor and of justice, must triumph over any warlike inclination she may feel to pursue a course that can have but one ending.

New York Tribune—He (the president) has drawn an indictment against the German nation which will live for all ages to come if the kaiser's government fails to meet the demands of the president of the United States promptly and completely. Wronged, we have offered Germany a peaceful solution in the present crisis and the president's message sums it all up. We shall omit neither word nor act necessary to the performance of our sacred duty.

New York Herald—It might have been stronger; it might have been weaker; it will serve. Mr. Wilson has overcome the influence of those members of his cabinet who are for peace at any price. He has lived up to the very best traditions of his character.

New York World—It is calm; it is restrained; it is courteous, but with a cold, biting courtesy that gives added emphasis to every word. By the strength of his case and the moderation of his tone, the president has made it as easy for Germany to do right as to do wrong. If he is to fail in his efforts it will be in good conscience and in a good cause.

New York Sun—The note is impeccably urbane, though not without little ironies in its tones, friendly in spirit, resolute in its assertion of American rights and of the freedom of the seas. It recalls Germany's contention for that liberty. The president has spoken firmly. The country, supporting him as firmly, awaits without passion the German reply.

New York Press—Into the end of his note to Berlin, President Wilson has put some teeth and not too many at that—into the end, because the first of it is filled with those graceful, but empty rhetorical phrases which long ago exhausted the patience of Americans, no less than they excited the derision of the Berlin militarists.

New York American—The president's letter is undeniably vigorous, but it is possibly dangerous as well. The nation desired that its rightful demand should have been laid before the German government, but it did not anticipate that the president would go so far beyond the plainly and soundly rightful case of those demands as to invite a rebuff.

Springfield, Mass., Republican—The government's position in this case is the country's position. It is not extreme, yet it covers the ground.

Buffalo, N. Y., Courier—Right-minded men of every party will approve its conclusion on page 4.)

PERIOD OF FRUITLESS PROTESTS HAS PASSED

Figaro's Comments on Note United States Has Sent to Germany

Paris, May 14.—The unofficial version of President Wilson's note to Germany is highly praised by this morning's papers.

"It shows," says the Figaro, "that the era of banal protests is over and that Germany must give formal guarantees that she will not permit similar crimes in future. If she breaks the promise the United States will proceed to act. The United States perhaps will not go as far as war, for it will not be necessary. It is possible she may take the initiative in the organization of a defensive league of neutrals which will transfer the passive neutrality of non-belligerents into active neutrality which will manifest itself to begin with, by an absolute and complete boycott of Germany which definitely will place her beyond the pale of civilization. In any case, we can be sure that the United States will exact full and entire satisfaction."

UNITED STATES' NOTE WAS PRESENTED TO-DAY

Berlin, May 14.—The United States' note to Germany regarding the sinking of the Lusitania, with its attendant loss of American lives, was presented to the foreign office here early to-day by American Ambassador Gerard.

SAYS THAT HIS SHIP SANK A SUBMARINE

Butte, Eng., May 14.—A German submarine is reported to have been sunk in the North Sea. The captain of the steamship Collaraine, on reaching port to-day, stated that the vessel apparently had destroyed the submarine by running it down off the Northumberland coast.

No submarine was seen but the captain says his ship struck a submerged obstacle. A large quantity of oil subsequently appeared on the surface and the conclusion was drawn that a submarine had been run down.

Will be settled.

Detroit, Mich., May 14.—By a unanimous vote the striking motormen and conductors of the Detroit United Railway agreed to-day to a plan for the settlement of the labor troubles which began yesterday morning.

ADMIT THAT FRENCH HAVE MOVED FORWARD

Germans Announce That Gen. Joffre's Forces North of Arras Have Advanced

MUCH DEPENDS ON PRESENT OPERATIONS

British Holding Their Ground and Keeping Large German Forces Engaged

London, May 14.—For the first time in six months the authors of the French and the German official announcements on the progress of hostilities find themselves in agreement. The German communication admits the truth of the more important claims made by General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, as to the great successes won by the French between La Bassée and Arras.

If this attack can be pushed home the consequences will be still more marked, in the opinion of British military commentators, who are claiming to-day that a little further advance by the French will open a serious gap in the German line, a development which will necessitate the falling back of the Germans on a wide front.

To the north of La Bassée the British are holding their ground and keeping great masses of Germans engaged, troops who otherwise would be used to make an effort to stop the advance of the French.

In the eastern field the German forces in Galicia, which are said to number 1,500,000 men, are reported to be within twenty miles of Erzerum. The Russians appear to be developing counter strokes both on the West Galician front and in Bukovina, and they announce initial successes. Military men here are careful not to commit themselves on the outcome of these activities pending further developments.

The hint made by Lord Haldane as to the possibility of conscription has been interpreted in some quarters meaning that the war is now less a matter of time than it has been for some months past.

JURY AT VANCOUVER ACQUITTED SERBIAN

Nick Poylnak Was Charged With Having Attempted to Murder an Austrian

Vancouver, May 14.—A dramatic speech in which he pointed to the atrocities and deliberate outrages upon humanity committed by the German and Austrian armies was made to a jury in the assizes this morning by Gordon M. Grant in defence of Nick Poylnak, a Serbian charged with having attempted to murder an Austrian named Adag. After five minutes' deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of "not guilty" and Poylnak was acquitted.

The evidence was that Poylnak, a miner at Britannia, had come to town with four months' pay and had got in a melee in the Europe poolroom on Powell street. The place is run by an Austrian named Pollick, and the Austrians present charged that Poylnak, after having been ejected, had returned with a knife and attacked several of them.

It transpired, however, that Poylnak, who is a naturalized Canadian, was a collector for the Serbian Red Cross association. The evidence of a doctor that Poylnak when arrested was suffering from knife stabs in the front and back of the head, and had fainted away from weakness, lent support to his story that he had been set upon and beaten by the Austrians out of racial revenge.

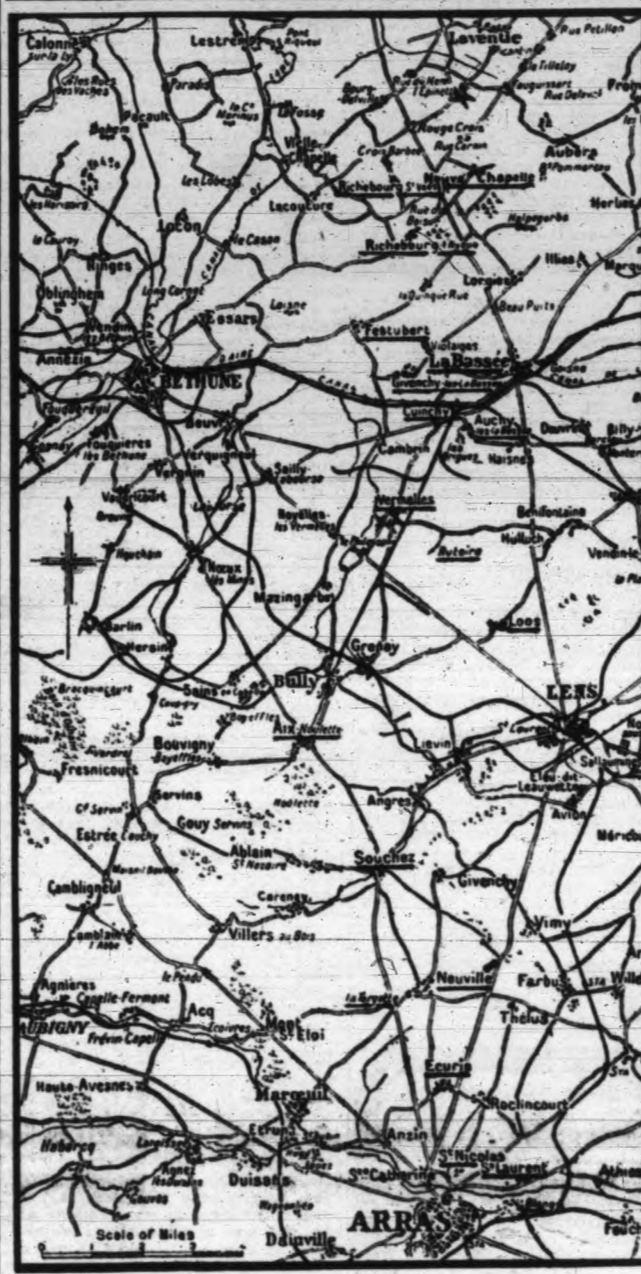

In his speech, Mr. Grant pointed out that the Austrians' out of work in the city would regard Poylnak and his bankroll as legitimate prey and argued that the wounds on his client showed that he had been the victim and not the aggressor. The wounds which Adag and the other Austrians bore, he said, probably had been given by their own countrymen in their efforts to stab Poylnak.

HUNS SENT DUTCH
TRAWLER TO BOTTOM

Rotterdam, May 14.—The sinking of a Dutch trawler in the North Sea yesterday by a German aeroplane was reported in dispatches received here to-day. The trawler's crew is reported to have been killed.

Grimsby, Eng., May 14.—The British trawler Cancer has been torpedoed in the North Sea and its crew made prisoners, according to advices received here to-day.

WHERE GERMANS ARE BEING DRIVEN BACK

ALLIED FORCES ARE TAKING THE FORTS

More Troops Landed on Gallipoli Peninsula To-day After Violent Bombardment

Athens, May 14.—After an all-night bombardment of the Dardanelles, during which the allied ships simply rained shells on the Turkish forts, fresh allied troops landed this morning at 3 o'clock at Kaba Tepe, on the northern shore of the Gallipoli peninsula, and advanced to storm the forts. Dispatches from Mitylene say that the attack was desperate and that the Turks were driven quickly toward the summit of two heights commanding Kild Bahr, Kithia and Midos, where the Moslems are in force.

Another force of the allies is advancing through the hills north of Kild Bahr and Midos. It is believed that the commanders of the allies plan to pinch the Turks in this region between a front and rear attack.

Athens, May 14.—The Anglo-French fleet has increased the intensity of its bombardment of the forts of the Dardanelles since the sinking of the British battleship Goliath. Three thousand shells were hurled at the forts on Tuesday, according to advices received here to-day.

British and French birdmen have located the position of Turkish infantry on the Asiatic side and the Turks were subjected to a terrific cannonading to-day.

Reinforcements for the Allies have arrived from France and Egypt.

BOMBS FELL INTO SEA AND EXPLODED

London, May 14.—A Reuter dispatch from Ymuden says the Dutch trawler Spranshage reports that a Taube aeroplane, coming from the west, dropped three bombs at her on Wednesday. In spite of the fact that she was in the sea where they exploded.

PRAYERS OFFERED.

London, May 14.—An Athens dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph states that the illness of King Constantine is taking its normal course. Prayers for his recovery were offered to-day in all churches. His majesty is said to be suffering from an attack of pleurisy which developed from a cold.

ENEMY ALIENS ARE BEING INTERNED NOW

British Authorities Began Work To-day; Lists Were Given to Police

London, May 14.—The internment of the 4,000 Germans, Austro-Hungarians and Turks in the British Isles was begun here to-day by Scotland Yard officers and war constables. Under the direction of the foreign office many women, children and men too old for military service will be deported.

Most of the 20,000 enemy aliens in London are expected to surrender voluntarily. Many of these probably will be held at detention camps in Ireland. To-day thousands of policemen at the various stations were given government lists of the names of people to be interned.

In spite of the wild demonstrations enacted here practically since the first of the week against residents of Teutonic extraction, it is a notable fact that not even one complaint has been received from aliens suffering from personal injuries.

Streams of Germans, however, poured into the American consulate here to-day seeking protection. The only thing Consul-General Skinner could do for them was to appeal to Scotland Yard in their behalf. In many instances the Teutons desired compensation for the damage done their property and assurances that there would be no repetition of the attacks.

BALLOTS FOR SOLDIERS NOW ARE IN ENGLAND

Ottawa, May 14.—The Soldiers' Vote Act now is law. The Imperial government has consented to the plan and the proclamation bringing the law into force has been issued.

It generally was understood that the Canadian government expected that the Imperial government would refuse to sanction the plan. The British authorities, however, took the view that the Canadian parliament should know what it was doing when enacting the law. The ballots for the soldiers are now in England, so the next Dominion election will be illegal unless the Canadians in the trenches are allowed to vote.

ADVANCE CONTINUES TRENCHES CAPTURED

French Official Statement Tells of Success to Southwest of Souchez

FORCES ARE HOLDING ALL RECENT GAINS

German Positions on Belgian Coast Bombarded by British and French Airmen

Paris, May 14.—The French war office this afternoon issued the following statement: "It has been raining with stop since yesterday morning. Last night, in spite of the handicap of a difficult and slippery terrain, we occupied several German trenches to the southwest of Souchez, and we have maintained on the rest of the front from Loos to Arras all the gains recently made by us."

"In the valley of the Aisne we destroyed four German blockhouses and levelled several trenches."

Paris, May 14.—British and French aeroplanes have delivered another attack on German positions on the Belgian coast, destroying a number of bridges, according to an official communication issued to-day. The birdmen have been given special orders to find and bombard the big guns which have been shelling Dunkirk at a distance of 22 miles.

A dispatch received here to-day says that the French have captured 6,000 men north of Arras.

London, May 14.—"The week of battle now drawing to a close has left both sides exhausted and breathless," telegraphs the Daily News' correspondent in the north of France. "To-day, Ascension Day, we are burying our thousands and the Germans perish their tens of thousands. The fury of the fighting has been unbelievable and the death roll is appalling, but our line is established firmly."

BERNSTORFF SAYS HE KNOWS NOTHING

German Ambassador Had Conference With Counselor Lansing at Washington

Washington, May 14.—"I have not received any instructions. I have not heard anything. I do not know anything," said Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, after a conference with Counselor Lansing at the state department this forenoon.

London, May 14.—"One of the greatest issues of the war," says the Westminster Gazette, the organ of the government, to-day in discussing President Wilson's note to Germany, "is sharply defined in the American note. The answer must make clear to the world whether Germany definitely has abandoned all legal sanction and limitations in war which hitherto have been held to be beyond challenge."

"President Wilson is acting for the honor and safety of Americans. All who are biased in favor of any of the belligerents will do well to spare him advice or comment."

ENEMY'S DRIVE HAS ENDED IN FAILURE

Russians Hold Strong Positions Along River San; Fresh Troops Have Arrived

Petrograd, May 14.—The Russians have fallen back upon strong strategic positions along the river San, which runs north and south through Central Galicia, and now regard the German drive as having been checked permanently.

The arrival of fresh Russian troops, which successfully engaged the German flanks, has relieved the pressure upon the Russian centre. These attacks on the German wings in which the Russian cavalry has been supported effectively by mountain artillery, have been prosecuted with unusual fierceness.

The activity noted in the last few days along the centre of the Polish front in the vicinity of Skierniewice and Rawa, is said to have been due to Russian initiative and was carried out with the object of holding the Germans in their positions and preventing utilization of these forces elsewhere.

Rome, May 14.—King Victor Emmanuel to-day received in the order named the following gentlemen: Signor Marcaccio, president of the chamber of deputies, and Signor Giolitti, a former Prime Minister but now the leader of the party in Italy in favor of neutrality.

These evidences of political developments were observed with deep interest because of the resignation yesterday of the cabinet on the ground that it did not have the unanimous support of the constitutional parties of the country in its international policy. The king has not yet announced whether the resignations would be accepted.

The members of the cabinet found it impossible to bridge the differences separating them from the followers of Signor Giolitti. They handed in their resignations.

ITALY IS ON VERGE OF A REVOLUTION

Soldiers and Mob Clashed in Streets of Rome; Many Wounded

POPULACE WILDLY IN FAVOR OF INTERVENTION

German Residents Attacked on the Street; D'Annunzio Man of the Hour

Rome, May 14.—Scores of rioters were wounded here to-day when troops, called out to quell war disturbances, fired volley after volley into a wild riot in the Piazza Di Colonna.

A great mob had concentrated in the Piazza and attacked Germans who were seen in the streets. Non-interventionists gathered to support the Germans when the war mob engaged them in a hot fight. The battle raged for some time, until troops and carabinieri were rushed to the scene.

Efforts to disperse the fighting crowd were futile and at last the word was given to open fire. Several discharges followed and many of the mob were dragged away seriously wounded. There were a number of casualties among the police and soldiers.

This evening huge crowds are gathering in several squares about the city and are rapidly getting beyond the authorities' control.

The populace is wild for war and cries of "Down with Austria" and "Death to the Germans" are heard all over the city. The gravest disturbances are expected during the night unless a declaration of war is issued in the meantime by the ministry.

Dispatches from Milan say that serious rioting has broken out in that city over the political situation. The adherents of the opposing political factions have resorted to the use of firearms, and the situation is described as most grave.

The disorders were precipitated by the resignation of the Italian cabinet last night.

Paris, May 14.—A Havas dispatch from Rome filed late last night says that at the close of the meeting of the ministers, Prime Minister Salandra conferred with King Victor Emmanuel and that grave events are expected in the very near future.

Rome, May 14.—The war fever continues to spread throughout Italy and the manifestations in the capital are particularly impressive. A crowd which favored Italy's intervention went to the hotel at which Gabriel d'Annunzio is stopping. He appeared on a balcony and spoke fervidly in favor of war. From d'Annunzio's hotel the crowd went to the palace of Dowager Queen Margherita and acclaimed her wildly.

Pro-war enthusiasts engaged in a brief struggle with neutralists who were holding a meeting in the Place San Silvestro. In the clash the windows of a German cafe and another establishment were broken. Mounted police cleared the square but the demonstration was continued for some time in the central part of the city.

Rome, May 14.—Frenzied demonstrations followed here to-day in the wake of the resignation of the Salandra cabinet. Mathias Erzberg, a member of the Reichstag, here from Berlin on a diplomatic mission, was attacked in the streets and would have been killed but for the timely arrival of carabinieri.

Continued demonstrations are feared and the police are taking extraordinary precautions to cope with the situation. All important points in the city now are occupied by troops.

Intention of organizing a demand to counteract the actions of those in favor of war has been announced by the political party whose policies are in favor of Italy remaining neutral.

D'Annunzio, the poet, is Italy's man of the hour. He is in Rome to-day for his first visit since he left on his self-imposed exile several years ago.

He was welcomed with loud acclaim, the populace welcoming him with "Hurrah for war; down with Austria." D'Annunzio's popularity is greater than ever since he inaugurated his persistent advocacy of war.

Rome, May 14.—King Victor Emmanuel to-day received in the order named the following gentlemen: Signor Marcaccio, president of the chamber of deputies, and Signor Giolitti, a former Prime Minister but now the leader of the party in Italy in favor of neutrality.

These evidences of political developments were observed with deep interest because of the resignation yesterday of the cabinet on the ground that it did not have the unanimous support of the constitutional parties of the country in its international policy. The king has not yet announced whether the resignations would be accepted.

The members of the cabinet found it impossible to bridge the differences separating them from the followers of Signor Giolitti. They handed in their resignations.

NEW METHOD MAY BE ADOPTED BY GOVERNMENT

What Haldane Said in House of Lords Regarding Raising of Forces.

London, May 14.—Viscount Haldane, lord high chancellor, said in the House of Lords yesterday that the Government yet might deem it advisable to resort to some method of raising troops other than the enlistment of volunteers. In supporting the bill to give the government authority to control the sale of liquor in districts in which munitions of war are manufactured, which was before the House of Lords on second reading, Viscount Haldane said: "We are fighting for our lives."

He added that the opinion had been expressed that until the return of normal conditions, the volunteer system would be difficult to depart from, "yet we may find that we have to reconsider the situation in the light of the tremendous difficulties with which the nation is confronted. We are not face to face with that problem yet. At present the hands of the war office are full with the work they have."

Lord Lansdowne said that the House heard with great satisfaction "the announcement that the government was prepared to reconsider the whole situation in regard to recruiting." In view of the tremendous necessities which confront the nation, members of the House had believed for a long time, he continued, that an announcement of the kind should be made, and they hoped it might be taken as an indication that this very grave problem was engaging the attention of the government.

ITALY'S FINAL DECISION RESTS WITH THE KING

Rome, May 14.—The final decision as to whether Italy shall declare war or remain neutral rests with King Victor Emmanuel. The Italian constitution gives to the sovereign alone authority "to declare war, make peace and conclude treaties."

There is a diversity of opinion in the capital, however, as to whether action by his majesty should be purely formal and simply in accordance with the decision reached by his ministers. Apparently a majority of the people believe the cabinet must assume the responsibility one way or another, with the certainty that its decision will be sustained almost unanimously by parliament and the country.

WAY WAS BARRED BY CANADIAN FORCES

What Prussian Officer Said; Germans Hate Soldiers From Dominion

London, May 14.—Donald Macmaster, M. P., states that a friend of his who has just returned from Germany says that the feeling of hatred among the Germans is now stronger against the Canadians than against the rest of the British forces.

"If it had not been for the Canadian rats we would have been through to Calais," a Prussian officer declared, according to Mr. Macmaster's friend.

Mr. Macmaster's informant also said that the present campaign being carried on by a certain section of the British press against the imperial government is quoted throughout Germany as an illustration of disaffection in Britain and wonderfully heartens the Germans.

London, May 13.—A correspondent writes as follows:

"A pretty story in which French Canadians play a part has reached me. At General Joffre's request, Major Rauger, Sergeant Mercen, Corporal St. Marie and fifteen privates were picked to act as a guard of honor to the French general. After being inspected the French Canadians were complimented by the commander-in-chief. They were taken through the French trenches, being feted everywhere, though many French soldiers could not understand comrades speaking their language, but wearing British uniforms."

London, May 14.—Lieut.-Colonel J. A. Currie, in command of the Fifteenth Battalion (composed of the 48th Highlanders, Toronto), who has arrived here, states that the following officers of his battalion are prisoners: Capt. Cory, Capt. Alexander and Lieut. Barwick.

Lieut.-Colonel R. Rennie, in command of the Third Battalion, advises that Major Kirkpatrick, Capt. Streight, Capt. Johnston, Lieut. Greene, Lieut. Allan and Major Anderson are prisoners.

Toronto, May 14.—Lieut. Arthur Lodge Lindsay, of the Sixteenth Battalion, who was reported as killed, was not killed but was wounded, according to a cablegram received by his mother. It is believed he may have been captured. Lieut. Lindsay formally resided in Strathroy, but went to the front with the Highlanders from Vancouver.

Toronto, May 14.—Captain A. C. Bastedo, who was reported officially as wounded, now is reported as killed in action on April 23 at Langemark. Capt. Bastedo was a student at Toronto university. He was 23 years of age, and was a noted tennis player. He spent several years in Vancouver.

Toronto, May 14.—A private cablegram states that Capt. G. W. Northwood, of the 8th Battalion (96th Winnipeg Rifles), is a prisoner but well.

Toronto, May 14.—A private message states that Lieut. McLurg, of Saul Ste. Marie, who was reported killed, is wounded and a prisoner. Lieut. McLurg was manager of the steamship department of the Algoma Steel Co.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 14.—Word has been received from Lieut.-Colonel F. W. Hill, of this city, commander of the First Battalion, who was in the battle of Langemark, and from Capt. C. H. Vandersluis, both are safe and well.

Toronto, May 14.—Capt. W. D. Gordon Allan, of the Royal Grenadiers, Teicser, in a prisoner in Saxony, according to a private message from London.

GERMANS COMMITTED WORLD'S BIGGEST SIN

How a Sailor Described the Savage Act of the Huns; Lady Allan at Dublin.

London, May 14.—W. L. Griffith, secretary in the office of the high commissioner for Canada, has returned from Queenstown, where he was visiting the Canadians who are among the Lusitania survivors.

Ten days ago I saw heroes who had been wounded on the battlefield in Flanders," he said, "but said as was that sight, it did not approach for heartbreaking sorrow the moving spectacle at Queenstown. I saw the bodies of brave men who had been cut off in the flower of life and the bodies of women who had been murdered while their innocent children clung to their breasts. As a rough sailor said to me with tears in his eyes: 'The Germans gave no chance even to the women and children. The world never has seen a bigger sin.'"

Information from Dublin states that Lady Allan now is in a hospital there. Her condition is satisfactory.

REV. J. A. BEATTIE WILL FIGHT AGAINST GERMANS

Queenstown, May 14.—The Rev. J. A. Beattie, chaplain of the 16th Battalion Expeditionary Force, whose wife and son were lost on the Lusitania, today declared here that he would discard his ministerial robes and go into the trenches against the Germans.

"I was a cowboy in Canada for 25 years," said the minister, "and can shoot the buttons off a coat at 100 yards. I now consider it my duty to kill as many Germans as there were women and men and little children murdered when the Lusitania went down."

TEXT OF THE NOTE SENT BY UNITED STATES TO GERMANY

Washington, May 14.—The government of the United States turned today expectantly toward Berlin, where Ambassador Gerard had been instructed to present to the German foreign office a note calling the attention of the imperial government to the "unlawful and inhuman" destruction of the Lusitania and other violations of American rights on the high seas.

Germany is asked in the note to disavow the acts of her submarine commanders in the torpedoing without warning of the Lusitania, a British ship, with a loss of more than 100 American lives, and the American steamship Gulf Light, "as a result of which two or more American citizens have met death." Reparation, "so far as reparation is possible," is asked, and the United States declares that it confidently expects that the imperial government will take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence of such acts and practices.

No time is specified for a reply, but the communication says: "The government and the people of the United States look to the imperial German government for just, prompt and enlightened action in this vital matter."

The course to be pursued by the United States in the event of a non-compliance with the requests and expectations is not stated, but high officials point out that the conclusion of the note is intended to impress upon Germany that there should be no misapprehension in Berlin of the United States' firm purpose to safeguard its rights by any means necessary. This is expressed in the final sentence, which says: "The imperial German government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

It was just a week ago to-day that the Lusitania was struck by a German torpedo and sunk with the loss of many neutral lives, besides the scores of Americans. The United States government is the first to act. The other neutral nations, most of whom have been waiting for the policy of the United States to be revealed, now are expected to decide what representations they will make.

As the note was read to-day by diplomats and officials generally, one feature that attracted wide comment was the stand taken by the United States against the use of the submarine as commerce destroyers, the attention of the German government being called to "the practical impossibility" of employing these under-sea craft to destroy merchantmen "without disregarding those rules of fairness, reason, justice and humanity which all modern opinion regards as imperative."

This was taken by naval officials versed in international law and diplomats to mean that not only during the present war but in future international conferences to amend the rules of maritime warfare, the American government will be found aligned against the use of the submarines against merchantmen.

The full text of the note is as follows: Department of State, Washington, May 13, 1915.

The Secretary of State to the American Ambassador at Berlin:

"Please call on the minister of foreign affairs, and after reading to him this communication, leave with him a copy."

In view of recent acts of the German authorities in violation of American rights on the high seas, which culminated in the torpedoing and sinking of the British steamship Lusitania, on May 7, 1915, by which over 100 American citizens lost their lives, it is clearly wise and desirable that the government of the United States and the imperial German government should come to a clear and full understanding as to the grave situation which has resulted.

The sinking of the British passenger steamer Lusitania by a German submarine on March 28, through which E. C. Thresher, an American citizen, was drowned; the attack on April 28 on the American vessel Gulf Light by a German submarine, as a result of which two or more American citizens met their deaths; and the capture and destruction of the steamship Lusitania constitute a series of events which the government of the United States has observed with growing concern, distress and amazement.

Recalling the humane and enlightened attitude hitherto assumed by the imperial German government in matters of international right, and particularly with regard to the freedom of the seas; having learned to recognize the German views and the German influence in the field of international obligations as always engaged upon the side of justice and humanity; and having understood the instructions of the imperial German government to its naval commanders to be upon the same plane of humane action prescribed by naval codes of other nations, the government of the United States was loath to believe that these acts, so absolutely contrary to the rules, the practices, and the spirit of modern warfare, could have the sanction of that great government. It feels it to be its duty, therefore, to address the imperial German government concerning them with the utmost frankness, and in the earnest hope that it is not mistaken in expecting action on the part of the imperial German government which will correct the unfortunate impressions which have been created, and vindicate once more the position of that government with regard to the sacred freedom of the seas.

The government of the United States has been apprised that the imperial German government considered themselves to be obliged by the extraordinary circumstances of the present war and the measures adopted by their adversaries in seeking to cut Germany off from all commerce to adopt methods of retaliation which go much beyond the extraordinary methods of war at sea, in the proclamation of a "war zone" from which they warned neutral ships to keep away. This government already has taken occasion to inform the imperial German government that it cannot admit the adoption of such measures of such a warning of danger to operate in any degree as an abbreviation of the rights of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality; and that it must hold the imperial German government to a strict accountability for any infringement of those rights, international or incidental. It does not understand the imperial German government to question those rights. It assumes, on the contrary, that the imperial German government accept, as of course, the rule that the lives of non-combatants, whether they be of neutral citizenship or citizens of any of the nations at war, cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unarmed merchantman and recognize also, as all nations do, the obligation to take the usual precaution of visit and search to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag.

The government of the United States, therefore, desires to call the attention of the imperial German government with the utmost earnestness to the fact that the object of their present method of attack against the trade of their enemies lies in the practical impossibility of employing submarines in the destruction of commerce without disregarding these rules of fairness, reason, justice and humanity, which all modern opinion regards as imperative. It is practically impossible for them to make a prize of her, and if they cannot put a prize crew on board of her, they cannot sink her without leaving her crew and all on board of her to the mercy of the sea in her small boats. These facts, it is understood, the imperial German government frankly admit. We are informed that in the instances of which we have spoken time enough for even that poor measure of safety was not given, and in at least two of the cases cited not so much as a warning was received. Manifestly submarines cannot be used against merchantmen, as the last few weeks have demonstrated without the inevitable violation of many sacred principle of justice and humanity.

American citizens act within their indisputable rights in taking their ships and in traveling wherever their legitimate business calls them upon the high seas, and they are entitled to the same protection as that which the United States government will not expect the government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment.

Doctor Said Only Hope Was in an Operation

Was Skeptical When He Began the Use of Dr. Chase's Ointment—Relief Came Quickly.

Here is a plain, honest statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Ointment. Before the use of this letter you can read the gratitude which its writer feels. One does not suffer from anything, distressing piles for ten years until we are satisfied that a cure when it is obtained.

Almost every mail brings the report of someone who has been cured of piles by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Such statements are never used without the permission of the writer, and we are satisfied that the cure is genuine and the writer a person of responsibility.

You may believe in operations, for piles, and think there is no other cure. Write to Mr. Ingles, enclosing stamp, and he will gladly verify his statement. He will tell you that the pain, the expense, the risk of an operation, are quite unnecessary. That relief and cure come with the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. Ernest W. Ingles, Penticton, B. C., writes: "I suffered from piles for ten years, and though I tried all kinds of ointments and injections I really had no permanent relief until I used Dr. Chase's Ointment. When I began this treatment I had absolutely no faith in it, for I had been examined by a well known physician in Vancouver, and he said that an operation was the only thing that would benefit me. It was surprising the relief I obtained from the very first box, and now after using four boxes I am practically cured. My case was so exceptionally bad that I received no relief day or night, and for this reason the results are wonderful."

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Ointment from any dealer at 50 cents a box. If you do not want to risk this much send a two-cent stamp to pay postage, and mention this paper, and we shall send you a sample box free. We are so certain that any sufferer from piles will obtain relief by using this ointment that we do not hesitate to make you this offer. Edmaneson, Bates & Co. Limited, Toronto.

THE HUN AND THE TURK.

All the world outside of Germany, and with the exception of the zealous agents of Germany in the United States, is agreed that the alliance between the Kaiser and the Sultan now is comprehensible. The Turk at his worst never was guilty of fouler crimes against humanity than the Hun. The bitter cry of Armenia in the past was not more justifiable than the pitiable wall that has arisen to heaven from stricken Belgium. Never was such a terrible indictment of a nation written as the report of Viscount Bryce and his fellow-commissioners on the atrocities committed by the German armies which invaded Belgium on the plea of necessity. The tale that is told in that report would be incredible if it were not related by a man whose name is a pledge that every word set down is true. And the most appalling feature of the tragedy of Belgium is that there is no question that it was acted on deliberate and express instructions from the German "higher military authorities." To the armies of the Kaiser the revolting, blood-curdling barbarities in Belgium were the first instalment of rewards that were to follow conquest of France and England. Even before the report of the Belgian commission was printed it was stated in the public prints of the United States, a neutral nation, that Germany had placed herself beyond the pale of civilization. As the New York World, a newspaper controlled by one bearing a German name, has said: "German policy adds up against the German people a terrible reckoning. Sooner or later they must pay. The price will be exacted without mercy." After reading Viscount Bryce's report, the verdict of civilization probably will be that the Hun and the Turk should expiate their offences together, with the former occupying the chief place as the creature of deeper infamy.

THE AMERICAN NOTE.

The text of the American note to Germany is calculated to remove from the Berlin mind any misconception of the temper of the Washington government. It may have entertained. It is virtually an ultimatum, for after describing the particular incidents that inspired it as "absolutely contrary to the rules, the practices and the spirit of modern warfare," it demands that the German government disavow these actions, make reparation as far as reparation is possible for injuries that are "without measure" and take "immediate" steps to prevent a recurrence of them. It points out that non-combatants, whether they be of neutral citizenship or citizens of any of the nations at war, cannot be jeopardized lawfully or rightfully by the capture or destruction of an unarmed merchantman, and emphasizes the obligation to visit and search a suspected vessel to ascertain whether it carries contraband or belongs to a belligerent power before accomplishing its capture or destruction. The note states further that the government and people of the United States look to the German government for prompt and enlightened action.

It concludes with the declaration that the republic will omit no word or act necessary to the protection of American lives and property. If the German government complies with the terms of that note a miracle will have happened. Such a compliance would mean an official admission that Germany had been guilty of piracy, for the American description of the acts upon which the note is based amounts to nothing less. It would mean the abandonment of the highly-cherished policy of "frightfulness" at sea and even of the attempted submarine blockade, for the note points out that it is impossible under the rules of warfare for a submarine to operate against merchant shipping. It cannot put a prize crew on a merchantman nor can it sink one even under the most humane conditions without placing the passengers and crew at the mercy of the sea in small boats. Having convinced the German people that Germany is victorious all along the line, having inspired its reptilian press to acclaim the sinking of the Lusitania as a great naval triumph and the beginning of the end of the British empire, and having indicated its contempt for the sentiment of the United States in numerous instances, the German government cannot comply with the American demands in their entirety without seriously damaging itself in the eyes of its own public, aside altogether from the effect it would have upon some of the European neutrals.

The American note does not say what course will be pursued if Germany refuses to accede to the demands embodied in it. The test of the Washington administration's firmness would come when the refusal was announced. Action of some kind, however, could not be avoided, and almost any action probably would evolve into a state of war, for if the United States did not declare it Germany in all likelihood would. War with the United States would give Germany an opportunity to torpedo everything that looked like a ship within the range of her submarines without asking any questions. For a time, too, it would cut off a source of war supplies which the allies now find to be very advantageous. Much, therefore, hangs upon Germany's reply.

PIFFLING AWAY.

The political records of G. H. Barnard and R. F. Green show that neither is conspicuous for his sense of the proprieties or good taste, and it is not surprising, therefore, that even in the shadow of the casualties of Ypres and the Lusitania horror they should attempt to revive election activities in this city. Apparently the fact has not dawned upon them that Bob Rogers, their particular exemplar, has been discredited in the eyes of the decent people of the Dominion, and that his failure to force the hand of the Governor-General and the Prime Minister to an election before his Manitoba machine was wrecked has relegated him to a level of obscurity from which even his two gifted disciples in this city cannot resurrect him.

It is unnecessary for us to deal with the cheap denunciations of their political opponents which fell from the lips of that misguided pair last night. Mr. Barnard's imputation that only the Conservative administration, and the Conservative party were anxious to contribute aid to the empire in the present war was contemptible enough to be quite worthy of the man. He knows that Canada is a unit in this respect and that Liberals as well as Conservatives are dying the soil of Flanders with their lifeblood. He knows also that credits for a hundred million dollars to defray Canada's war expenses were passed in the House of Commons in a few minutes without a dissenting voice, and that the attitude of the opposition was summed up by the Hon. George Graham's statement, "Millions for war but not one cent for graft." Mr. Barnard knows also that the condemnation of two of his colleagues for graft by the Prime Minister never would have occurred had it not been for the disclosures forced by the Liberal members of the Public Accounts Committee. Certainly Barnard records no expression of regret from Messrs. Barnard and Green over these transactions. Their indignation now suggests that they are sorry their friends were found out.

If these gentlemen feel that they must talk politics it is quite appropriate to remind them that imputations of disloyalty against their opponents are not only degrading, but coming from such a source, exceedingly indiscreet just now. A happier subject from their standpoint, perhaps, would be the record and aims of their friends, Sir William Mackenzie and Sir Donald Mann, in this province. Having voted and labored faithfully in the interests of that pair of promoters, they ought to be in a position to give a great deal of very interesting information on a subject which affects most intimately the welfare of the people of this country.

BANK DEPOSITS.

This is a period of economy and thrift, not only in Canada but elsewhere where capital has been wont to flow freely. Bank deposits in this country last March exceeded a billion dollars, which is $25,000,000 more than they were in March, 1914, and $185,000,000 in excess of the total in the corresponding month five years ago. Savings deposits were $123,000,000 greater than they were four years ago. In the United States the banks are overflowing with money.

Capital, therefore, is standing pat and taking no chances. It will leave its haven of security only through the attraction of a sure thing. The blight of Prussianism still hangs over the world and until it is removed openings for investment must submit to microscopic examination. At the same time the law of compensation is operating with all its force. The country will benefit in the long run from its enforced hoarding. Extravagance, recklessness and the fever of ill-considered speculation will be eliminated. When the war terminates countries that were burning the candle at both ends will have saner views of values and sound business principles with the result that confidence will be speedily restored.

ITALY SPRINGS A NEW ONE.

Instead of a new development in the war in a military sense Italy provides us with a political sensation. Premier Salandra and his cabinet have resigned because of the lack of unanimity among the various political bodies regarding the course they ought to pursue. In other words, rather than face the issue of peace or war the advisers of King Victor Emmanuel are running away.

Prince von Buelow has not lost the game yet, and no matter what may be the outcome it must be admitted that this diplomatist, the only one evidently Germany possesses, has played Italian politics with consummate skill. Through all sorts of means he has converted high-placed Italian statesmen into glorified Hohenzollern agents and apparently he has established very effective connection with the cabinet itself.

Italy has expended the greater part of a billion dollars in making ready for the war which was to bring about a realization of her immemorial aspirations—if it could not be accomplished without fighting. Demands were made upon Austria and Austria turned them down. The army and navy were mobilized; all intercourse between Italy and the central empires, saving through diplomatic channels, was suspended; Italians left Germany and Austria helter-skelter and Germans and Austrians left Italy. The cabinet marched defiantly to the edge of the plank, hesitated for a moment and then abandoned the plank.

Official Italy's trouble is that she is not yet convinced that the allies are going to win, and she wants to play the safe game. Some years ago, at the Algeiras conference called to consider the Morocco question, her delegates indicated the character of her policy in a crisis between the triple alliance and the triple entente. There were four delegates and two voted for each side. Nevertheless we are convinced that sooner or later Italian intervention is inevitable. A decisive stroke by the allies in France, Galicia or the Dardanelles would force the hesitant action or there would be a revolution.

It is not improbable that the Russian retirement in Galicia may have cooled the ardor of the cabinet at Rome. Moreover, Italy recently passed through a costly war, and this, combined with the force of the pro-German propaganda, may account for the diffidence of certain influential statesmen. As far as can be gleaned from the dispatches the resignation of the Premier is not due to any difference between him and his sovereign and it would seem that the politicians are determined to force upon the shoulders of the King alone the heavy burden of the decision. Late reports indicate, however, that the Italian people are taking the situation into their own hands.

While there have been serious anti-German riots in Great Britain, it may be well to remember that Britons at home have suffered under great provocation. Since the beginning of the war they have endured not only barbaric acts on the sea but exasperating and indefensible raids from overhead, which have resulted in the deaths of women and children. Zeppelin raids serve no military purpose. They are merely forms of expression of Teutonic "frightfulness." That is a point also upon which the American press is beginning to speak its mind with freedom. The Boston Transcript of a recent date says: "The Zeppelin so far has not proved much of an agency of warfare. Rather is it employed as an agency of midnight murder, dropping bombs on relatively small British towns when their people are wrapped in slumber. If these places were fortified, if they were military stations, there might be some excuse for these bombardments. As they are communities without any serious importance, the aerial warfare carried on against them is simply cruelty which can have no effect on the general result of the contest." The reports that come to us from these places indicate that we do not live in days as "enlightened" as we think. In the wars of half a century ago the idea of killing non-combatants in their beds by throwing down upon them explosive bombs would have been rejected with scorn by all commanders. Imagine, if you can, the disgust with which Grant or Lee would have greeted a proposition to throw a shell into a farmhouse far removed from any possible scene of action.

All the big American newspapers have "come out strong" in denunciation of the sinking of the Lusitania, none stronger than the New York Herald, which says: "Henceforth is

The best for the least—that's what you get when you order.

International anarchy to be the controlling factor in marine warfare? Henceforth is piracy on the high seas to be recognized and go unprotected and unpunished? Henceforth is the wanton murder of neutrals and non-combatant passengers to be treated as regrettable incidents and go at that? It is for the neutral countries, and above all for the United States, to answer these questions. It is a time of gravity in American history unmatched since the civil war. This cold blooded, premeditated outrage on colossal scale will cause such a blinding white light of indignation throughout the neutral portion of the world, unhappily growing smaller and smaller, that there cannot conceivably be in Washington any thought of turning back from the note to Germany sent February 16.

COUNT VON BERNSTORFF'S WAY.

We are not to blame that Germany's navy is bottled up and does not come out and fight. Nor are we called upon to make up for its weakness by putting a tremendous weapon into Germany's hands—the weapon of the embargo. And it comes with peculiar ill grace for Germany to ask us to Germany that has maintained every war that has been fought for the last thirty years, that has supplied all belligerents alike if they had the money. Ambassador Bernstorff has been tactics and provocation of the American people's irritation ever since the war began.

FUTURE DEPENDS ON PRESENT.

The British nation will be judged irrevocably by the manner in which it carries itself to-day, when its very existence depends on its resolution. Tremendous hours are before it—hours of anxiety, effort, sorrow, and suffering sorer than any through which it has passed. In these hours the course which it now adopts will have incalculable influence on its fate.

resignations for the reason that they preferred to follow this course rather than to appear in parliament when it meets on May 29 and give to the world an exhibition of internal division in Italy, probably accompanied by recriminations and accusations.

The action of the cabinet leave King Victor Emmanuel free to choose the men he considers best adapted to guide Italy in the present grave situation. Both Signor Macera and Manfredi have been mentioned as possibilities for the post of prime minister. According to parliamentary custom, the king has the right to accept or reject the resignations of the cabinet and today Rome is filled with the wildest conjecture as to what his majesty will do. Some believe he will summon the cabinet before the chamber of deputies for discussion of its course, being guided himself by what these discussions reveal, while others argue that Prime Minister Salandra resigned because of the attitude of Signor Giolitti and that Giolitti must necessarily take the place of Salandra.

More dispassionate observers are of the opinion that the king probably will choose a new cabinet composed of men who have not taken part in the heated exchanges of the last week.

Another suggestion advanced is that the day has arrived for the formation of a great national cabinet similar to that of France, a ministry to include the leading figures of all parties to which there shall be entrusted the momentous decision now before the country.

DAVID SPENCER, LIMITED

announcement of the future policy acceptable to the United States government, particularly a policy of sea warfare, must not be delayed long.

Ohio State Journal, Columbus—Hoy Germany will promise to protect the lives and property of our people in the future, or in what manner this country will receive her refusal remains to be seen. It is a grave alternative, and while it is not likely to result in war, it will bring about an annuity toward Germany that will be full of anxiety.

Louisville, Ky., Courier-Journal—The note to Germany meets the requirements and is such as the government of the United States should address to Berlin. The president leaves little room for parody, and none other than mouthings or rapture remain for Germany.

Louisville, Ky., Anzeiger—We agree with the president that the German government must explain the loss of the lives of American passengers, but we do not think the death of Americans gives the president the right to demand the cessation of Germany's under-sea warfare against British commerce so long as Britain does not abrogate its starvation warfare.

Chicago Tribune—Whatever the fate of our relations with Germany, the president undoubtedly has voiced the sentiment of the nation upon the use of submarines and the rights of neutrals on the high seas.

Chicago Herald—There is now no possibility of mistaking the position of our government. And it is a position in which the American people will sustain their government in whatever measures may be necessary to uphold it.

Indianapolis, Ind., Star—In manly fashion the president's note does not shrink from the logical consequences of his position, but accepts the full significance of his attitude.

St. Paul Pioneer Press—The American note has reached to a wonderful height of forceful diplomacy. Hoping for the best, the universal American sentiment will be that the United States has done its duty and the people will support the president through whatever may be the consequences.

Springfield, Ill., State Journal—It is the dignified protest of a nation, which, while feeling that its rights and the rights of other neutrals have been violated, is neither vindictive nor resentful.

St. Louis Die Westliche Post—For the press of the whole country there is at present but one sacred duty, to leave nothing undone to avert inner strife. That we Americans of German descent, with bleeding hearts, contemplate the possibility of armed conflict between the United States and the land of our forefathers, no fair-minded will condemn us for. There still is hope for an honorable understanding on both sides. May Providence grant that the worst be averted.

St. Louis Republic—There is not in the note any slightest hint that this government will stop short of the fullest reparation for the past and the guarantee of recognition of the full rights of American citizens in the future.

Cincinnati, O., Volksblatt—The note is disappointing in that it disregards the just complaints of Germany and appears to espouse the cause of Great Britain. We think that the difficulty admits of a satisfactory solution by advising American citizens to travel on American vessels. Unwittingly the president shelters British cowardice, which tries to make British ships immune to German attacks by taking American passengers aboard.

Cincinnati Freie Presse—The part of the note dealing with the loss of lives in the Lusitania catastrophe more properly ought to have been directed to London. Britain alone is responsible for the Lusitania's destruction through her brutal threat to starve a nation. Germany cannot stop the under-sea warfare without surrendering herself, bound hand and foot to a brutal enemy. We are not obliged and have no right to cast ourselves as the protectors of British shipping.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune—The strength of a just man armed is apparent in the protest sent by President Wilson. Devoid of treachery, breathing the highest ideals of international justice, this remarkable paper, rejected with contemptuous scorn, brushes aside all formalities and is frank, and in unmistakable language tells the Kaiser's government what the American people think of the series of incidents leading up to the slaughter of innocents on board the Lusitania.

Washington Post—The note is framed in moderate language and leaves abundant opportunity for the German government to reply in a way that will restore good feeling between the two countries. The question is now up to Germany. It is unnecessary to speculate whether the American note will lead to war or peace, because the issue rests with Germany and not with the United States. The alternative is set forth clearly.

Boston Globe—President Wilson has not shirked a grave responsibility. The American note clearly shows that Germany must relent or take whatever consequences may result from the course we may decide to adopt.

Boston Herald—President Wilson never has written a great state paper more exactly suited to the occasion. We hope most fervently that in a spirit of reasonableness Germany will coincide with the enlightened position set forth with clarity and power by the president.

Boston Ledger—President Wilson's words are those of a patriot. We cannot believe that a nation which is bound by so many ties of friendship to this nation is so far obsessed by war madness that she will fail to heed the message.

Boston Post—The note is all that such a message from a justly aggrieved nation to the aggressor nation should be. In it is the voice of the American people at its finest and best. In it is a powerful appeal to German sanity.

Philadelphia Public Ledger—The administration has shown and spoken to the point. The German government cannot have the slightest doubt as to its meaning. Will Germany listen to the voice of prudence before it is too late?

Philadelphia Enquirer—We have not agreed always with the president of the United States, but when it comes to a question of the nation's honor the president must be upheld. The note is written with clarity and power by the president.

New York Staats Zeitung—While the Staats Zeitung makes no editorial comment on President Wilson's note today, it has the following to say, printed in English: "Now is this a time to burden millions of the American people with unjust and unnecessary anguish of mind. The German-American must suffer in any conflict between the United States and Germany pains of which their fellow-citizens can never know anything. It is rather a time for showing them the greatest consideration. They have fought to uphold the flag and they will do so again, against any enemy whatsoever. They deserve the fruits of past loyalty, until they have forfeited the right to claim them. There has never been but one flag under which the German-American has fought; there never can be but one flag under which we will ever fight, and that flag is the Stars and Stripes."

Cancels Certificate.—The council of public instruction gives notice in the B. C. Gazette that the notice teachers' certificate, third class, granted to James E. Clarke on August 12, 1914, has been cancelled for cause.

Y. M. C. A. Campaign.—The Y. M. C. A. campaign for funds is still in progress and contributions are coming in slowly. It is hoped that the response of the public will be so generous as to enable the directors to keep the doors of the institution open.

Tenders for Timber.—The chief forester of the province calls for tenders for the purchase of timber license x116 under which may be cut 800,000 feet of merchantable timber on Prince of Wales Reach, Jervis Inlet, two years being allowed for the removal of the timber.

Free Miners' Certificates.—Holders of free miners' certificates are reminded through advertisement in the B. C. Gazette that their certificates expire at midnight on May 31, and that if they wish to preserve their rights they should take early steps to renew the certificates.

Annual Meeting.—The annual meeting of the Connaught Seaman's institute will take place this evening at 8 o'clock. It is earnestly hoped by the president of the Ladies' guild of the institute that as many members of that guild should be present as possible, this being the first meeting in the new hall, corner of Superior and St. Lawrence streets.

Women's Institute.—A conference was held in the parliament buildings yesterday between the advisory board of the provincial women's institute and officials of the department of agriculture in regard to the work of the institute. Of late a great deal of work is being done by the members of these institutes in the preparation of articles for the men at the front, in addition to the work carried on by them in agricultural matters.

Concert on Tuesday.—St. John's church choir will give a concert in aid of the choir vestments on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Will Give Lecture.—Miss Helen Bouldin will lecture this evening at 8 o'clock in the Belmont house, board room, her subject being "Christ Healing."

Held Regular Meeting.—Alisa Craig camp No. 71, will hold their regular meeting this evening in the Foresters' hall, Broad street. All members are urged to be present.

Spiritual Society Concert.—Tuesday evening the Victoria Progressive Spiritual society will hold a concert and dance in the hall above the Princess theatre.

Picnic To-morrow.—The Rockland Park union, W. C. T. U., will hold a picnic to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Those attending are requested to meet at Gosworth Road church.

Annual Meeting.—The Connaught Seaman's institute will hold their annual meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the institute hall, corner of Superior and St. Lawrence streets. All members are urged to be present.

Concert Cancelled.—The 53th band concert, which was to have been held on Sunday evening next, has been cancelled. The proceeds were to have been donated towards the United Service tobacco fund.

Orange Lodge Meeting.—The Sir George White, L. O. L., will hold its regular monthly meeting to-night in the A. O. U. W. hall, Yates street, at 8 o'clock. The County lodge report will be presented and other important matters will be brought forward. A distinguished Orangemen will address the assembly.

Illustrated Lecture.—The Great War, illustrated by lantern slides, is the subject upon which R. G. Howie will lecture on this evening at the Metropolitan church. His address will be on modern warfare on both land and sea, and will include the trip of the Canadians to the front. A. Huxtable will show on the screen 150 slides. A collection will be taken.

Provincial Appointments.—Appointments made by the provincial executive during the week and gazetted to-day are: John C. Readey, assessor and crop inspector, to be supervisor of agricultural education at Chilliwack; Joseph J. Rhodes, Happy Valley, to be a fence viewer for the Esquimalt district in the place of G. J. S. Cook, deceased; Richard M. McGusty, clerk in the government agency at 150-Mile House; C. H. Price, Westholme, to be police magistrate in and for the municipality of North Cowichan; Franklin Wellington, Cross Creek, to be a justice of the peace.

Grand Prairie Liberals.—The Liberals of Kamloops constituency are active, and many associations are being formed in different parts of the district. The latest is at Grande Prairie, where George Lister has been elected as president, Thomas Clementson as vice-president and Percy Clementson as secretary-treasurer. F. W. Anderson, the Liberal candidate, addressed the meeting. He dealt with the questions of irrigation and others which are especially of interest to the residents of the dry belt. A number of improvements in the administration of the water act were suggested by Mr. Anderson, the adoption of which would greatly reduce the cost and annoyance of irrigation to the users.

Garden City Women's Institute.—The Garden City Women's institute met Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Howe. The meeting was thrown open to the discussion of Red Cross work, and Mrs. Fleming, of the Victoria branch, Red Cross society, gave an interesting demonstration on making bandages. There was a very large attendance. The next meeting has been fixed for the second Tuesday in June, when Mrs. H. E. Young will speak. The organizers look for a good attendance of all interested on that occasion. The meeting will take place in the Garden City Methodist church, Carey road, which has been engaged for the purpose of accommodating a large audience.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TO-DAY

Victoria Times, May 14, 1890.

Mrs. Dunsmuir and the Misses Dunsmuir are now in Montreal on their way home from Europe, and may be expected in Victoria shortly.

Building operations in Victoria West are booming at present, and many fine residences are going up. The pretty little suburb now has two churches, the Methodist and the C. E. mission. There are several little stores springing up, notably at Russell station, that would do credit to a city. When the electric cars commence running past on their way to Esquimalt there is no doubt that many more residences will spring up.

The citizens of Nanaimo are getting up a testimonial to Mr. George Cruikshank, manager of the Bank of British Columbia, previous to his departure from Nanaimo.

Scout Concert.—There will be a scout concert at Marshall hall, the Gorge, next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Sunday Lecture.—Dr. T. W. Butler will speak at the Progress Temple, on Pandora avenue, Sunday at 3 p. m. Admission is free.

Ladies' Aid Meets.—The Ladies' Aid of the First Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Russell, 1375 Pandora avenue, on Monday, at 3 o'clock.

Legacy Waits Him.—The police have been asked to aid in the search for James Turner Seaton, who left Toronto in June of last year for Vancouver and is believed to be now on Vancouver island. A legacy awaits him.

Subjects of Discourse.—"Love That Covereth a Multitude of Sins," will be the subject of the morning sermon at St. Paul's Presbyterian church, Victoria West, next Sunday. In the evening the subject of discourse will be: "Lessons From the Lusitanian."

Fifth Troop "Hike"—Fifth troop, Boy Scouts, will "hike" out to the Gorge for a picnic to-morrow. The boys going in the morning will meet the scoutmaster at 10 o'clock at the end of the Gorge car line. Those who cannot go out in the morning may join the party in the afternoon, and will be met at the end of the Gorge car line at 2.30.

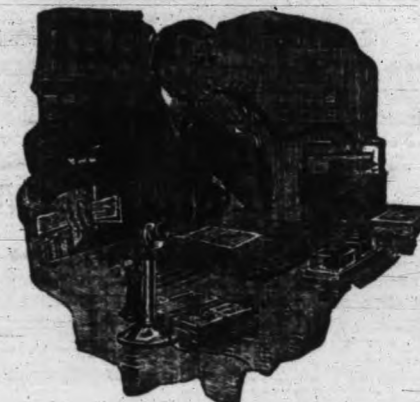

To Tour North.—The deputy minister of agriculture, W. E. Scott and the live stock commissioner, W. T. McDonald, are preparing to spend three weeks in northern British Columbia to see at first hand the conditions of farming there. They leave next Monday. The reports they have received this year are that the farmers have been progressive and that their output will be increased. The growing of corn and the use of silage are increasing.

Saanich Red Cross.—A Red Cross meeting was held on Tuesday at the Temperance hall, South Saanich, for the purpose of forwarding the work of the Red Cross. Rose Sutherland, chairman, and Mrs. Fitzherbert Bullen, vice-chairman, of the Victoria branch, addressed the meeting, which was well attended by ladies of the district. Mrs. Alexander McKenzie was appointed convener of a Red Cross committee for the district, and the ladies will proceed at once with the work of collecting funds and making garments and comforts for the sick and wounded soldiers.

More Bodies Recovered.—Four more bodies of the victims of the South Wellington colliery disaster have been recovered. That of William D. Anderson was interred in Nanaimo cemetery yesterday afternoon. Anderson died in the attempt to rescue his fellow-workers. He was employed in the upper workings and had time to reach safety, but he started down to the lower workings to warn those there, including his brother-in-law. His warning was instrumental in saving three of the men, but he was caught in the swirl of waters while on his way to call the others. He was a native of Scotland, and only twenty-two years of age. The bodies of Joseph Coward, Samuel Wardle and Frank Maravella have also been found, and there are but three yet in the mine, those of Peter Fearon, J. Fearon and G. H. Marvos.

Church Social.—On Monday, May 17, a social gathering of the congregation of St. Saviour's church will be held in the schoolroom at 3 p. m.—The Venerable Archdeacon Scriven, Rev. D. MacRae, D. D., and other friends will extend their congratulations to the church on its 27th birthday. An excellent programme has been arranged, among the performers being Dr. W. E. Home, who will sing "Yuss," and a patriotic ditty. Miss Evans and Miss Miller will sing songs, among them "The Lost Chord." Messrs. Gard, Youson, Barnett and others will contribute to the concert, while Master Cyril Russell will add to his laurels as a reciter. As accompanists Miss Ada Saunders and D. Macey will act, and will also furnish pianoforte numbers. At the close of the entertainment the ladies will serve tea, coffee and refreshments. A cordial invitation is extended to all friends, old members and church people.

Entertained Aged Men.—The Young People's society of Wesley Methodist church, Victoria West, took very well some entertainment for the aged men's home last evening, the concert being the first for several weeks. Mr. Daniels presided as chairman, and among the pleasing numbers furnished were a pianoforte solo, Richard Daniels; song, Serg. Ogilvie; recitation, "When Father Carved the Duck," Miss Gawley; song, Miss Evans; violin solo, Mr. Kerison; song, Miss Williams; piano, Miss Williams; song, A. G. Weight; song, Mr. Cribb; pianoforte duet, the Misses Beattie and Collins; song, Mr. Barnett; pianoforte duet, Anna Anderson and Rachael Daniels; song, Miss Marion Clayton; pianoforte solo, Mrs. Cribb. At the close of a very pleasant evening, during which the young ladies passed round refreshments, a very hearty vote of thanks was passed by the Old Men's Home to the welcome entertainers.

Dictate to the Dictaphone

Anyone can use the Dictaphone successfully, after two hours' practice on ordinary work. The handling of it then becomes mechanical. It is always ready to work. Day or night—before hours, during hours or after hours—the snap of a button and it is ready to take down all you say, just as you say it. Your stenographer can then transcribe it immediately or hours or days later. No chance of her being "stuck" because the Dictaphone will repeat as often as she wishes.

The Dictaphone is inexpensive in use, thoroughly efficient, mechanically correct. You ought to have it in your office. You would, if you understood it thoroughly.

RED CROSS CONCERT.

Successful Entertainment Held at Albert Head in Aid of Red Cross and Soup Kitchen.

The Victoria City and District Branch of the Red Cross society and Miss Dunsin's soup kitchen jointly have benefited to the extent of $52.50 cleared at a concert held at Albert Head.

The entertainment, through the kindness of Captain Nash, convenor of the Albert Head committee of the Red Cross society, of Mrs. James Humphrey, and of the foreman and staff of the Sir John Jackson quarry, took place at the Albert Head hall under the auspices of the local branch.

In every respect the event was thoroughly successful and enjoyable, and general interest and enthusiasm in advancing the Red Cross work was evinced by people of the district.

Assisting on the programme were several well-known entertainers: Mrs. H. Pooley, Miss Phyllis Davis, the Misses Mesher and Street, Mrs. A. D. Craddock, Mrs. Humphrey Baynes, Lawrence Earl, Captain Craddock, and a chorus of soldiers. H. Pooley M.P. presided as chairman at the proceedings.

FIRST SATURDAY

MARKET TO-MORROW

Believed That Change Will Be Successful; Improvements in Building

To-morrow will usher in the first Saturday market under the new semi-weekly schedule; the Friday market is a thing of the past and from now on there will be two markets per week, on Wednesdays and Saturdays. It is expected when the people get to understand the running of the new arrangement the market will be more popular than ever for the conditions now, with the recent improvements to the building, are more favorable than they have been heretofore. It is well for the citizens to understand that the city's food inspector examines every article of food brought into the market, and everything offered for sale has been approved by him, and can be depended upon as wholesome and fresh.

Purchasers of goods will find near the entrance door a tested city scale upon which they are invited to verify the correctness of the weight of their purchases, and at the west end of the building the B. C. Telephone company has a pay phone for the use of the public; an obliging clerk in charge of the market whose duty it is to give directions, and any information desired by visitors to the market. The market committee has taken hold of the market as one of the city's permanent institutions and if anticipated success comes, it is the intention to recommend such enlargements and improvements as will meet all increased requirements; each move being along lines of permanency coupled with convenience and sanitation. It is urged that the market is furnishing the citizens with fresh foodstuffs at reasonable prices. Home productions have been very materially increased and from now on more of the money that has been sent away for foreign-grown produce will each month be paid out to local farmers, who will in time pay it back to local merchants as other business houses in the city, thus making a systematic rotation between producer, consumer and the business man.

slam in advancing the Red Cross work was evinced by people of the district.

Assisting on the programme were several well-known entertainers: Mrs. H. Pooley, Miss Phyllis Davis, the Misses Mesher and Street, Mrs. A. D. Craddock, Mrs. Humphrey Baynes, Lawrence Earl, Captain Craddock, and a chorus of soldiers. H. Pooley M.P. presided as chairman at the proceedings.

ANNUAL MEETING

Proceedings to Open Next Tuesday at Christ Church Schoolroom

Next Tuesday, Wednesday, and Saturday (May 18, 19, and 20), the annual meeting of the Columbia Diocese Women's Auxiliary to Missions will take place in Christ Church schoolroom. An interesting programme has been arranged, and the sessions are expected to be helpful and interesting. The Tuesday morning session will commence with a celebration of Holy Communion and sermon by Rev. T. Archibald. The address of welcome to the visiting delegates will be made by Mrs. Phipps, and the reply by Mrs. Laycock, of Sandwick. Rev. G. H. Andrews will make the noon-hour address. The feature of the afternoon session will be the president's annual address, and a paper by Miss Paul on "Intercession as a Missionary Force." Wednesday morning will be largely devoted to the hearing of reports from the parochial branches. At the noon hour Rev. F. L. Stevenson will give the address, and there will be a paper by Miss Orwin on "The Member's Prayer." In the afternoon Rt. Rev. Bishop Roper will give the concluding address. The Saturday session will be given over almost entirely to the junior branches, who will bring their reports. The session will be afternoon only.

FUNDS FOR TENNIS COURT

Successful Concert Held at Knox Presbyterian Church on Wednesday Last, in Aid of Athletic Fund.
One of the best concerts ever held in Knox Presbyterian church was that given on Wednesday evening in aid of the Knox Church Athletic Association fund. J. G. Brown, who presided, explained that two wooden tennis and basketball courts were shortly to be opened adjoining the site of the new Knox church at the corner of Gladstone and Battery avenues, funds in behalf of which were needed. The courts, he explained, were primarily for the use of the young people of Knox church, but as the expenses in connection with the construction of the same were very heavy, outside members would be welcomed in limited numbers in order to assist in the financing of the scheme. The formal opening of the courts is fixed for May 24. The programme comprised interesting instrumental and vocal numbers by well known local talent, among those who gave particular pleasure being Professor Claudio, with some violin selections; Mrs. Parsons, of the Metropolitan Methodist church, who sang; Mr. Hazard, with an euphonium solo; Miss Moore, of St. John's church, and Mr. Duncan, who contributed vocal solos; and Miss Grace Murrie, who provided some pianoforte selections. The Belmont Methodist Church orchestra was present and gave a few nice numbers during the evening. A big audience was present.

WILL PREACH IN NEW CHURCH ON SUNDAY

REV. PROF. G. C. PIDGEON, M.A., D.D.

Of Westminster hall, Vancouver, is the special preacher for the third Sunday of the opening services in the First Presbyterian church. It will probably be the preacher's last appearance here, as he has been called to the largest and most influential church in Toronto.

Northwest Sewer.—The city engineer will recommend to the council the installation of the outfall of the Northwest sewer by day labor, rather than by contract, as was proposed last year, believing that a considerable saving can be effected by the change. The construction of the outfall was not hurried last year, and the sewer will take some months more to complete.

PIONEER EXPLORER DIES IN VANCOUVER

Walter Moberly, Famous Locator of C. P. R., is Called

Walter Moberly, prince of old timers, and pioneer of Vancouver pioneers, died at the Vancouver General hospital this morning. The following appreciation of Mr. Moberly's work for British Columbia has been written for the Victoria Times by Dr. W. W. Walkem:

"One more of the sturdy pioneers of this province has passed away. To-day we have the sad duty of chronicling the demise of Walter Moberly, whose figure for many years past has been a familiar one upon Vancouver streets.

"For the last month his illness was accompanied by a great deal of pain, suffering as he was, from cancer of the larynx. Of late, on account of the difficulty he had in obtaining the proper use of the vocal cords, it was almost an impossibility to make himself understood. The end, however, came, and the great explorer passed into his eternal sleep racked by the pain of the malignant growth and worn out with the activities and labors incidental to his arduous work among the mountains of this province.

"The late Walter Moberly was born in the village of Steeple Ashton, Oxfordshire, Eng., on August 15, 1832. His father, after a faithful service of 35 years in the British navy, retired with the rank of post-captain, and on his retirement, in addition to a pension was awarded a grant of several sections of land in the county of Simcoe, Upper Canada, as the province was called in those days.

"His mother, a member of a Polish family, was born in Sebastopol, where her father, an officer in the Russian service, was temporarily stationed. In 1842, when Walter was ten years old, his father emigrated to Upper Canada, accompanied by his family, and there purchased a home on the old military reserve of Penetanguishene, where many naval and military officers were stationed at the time.

"Walter and a younger brother received their first education from a soldier forming one of the garrison. This reserve derived its name, Penetanguishene, from an Indian word meaning 'falling sand,' a characteristic of the sandy point.

"At the age of 13 he was sent to the grammar school at Barrie, where he remained as a pupil boarder under Frederick Gore, the headmaster for several years. Mr. Gore, being a clever mathematician, gave the future explorer a good foundation in mathematics, an important part of his future profession.

"In 1857 and 1858, in common with thousands of others, Mr. Moberly was attacked by the gold fever caused by the reports which were spreading over Canada of the wonderful deposits of gold upon the Fraser river. As a result, he took passage on a ship sailing from New York and bound for Victoria by way of Cape Horn. The passengers on this ship were only carried as far as San Francisco, for on arriving there it was found that the company owning the ship had failed. However, Moberly succeeded in arriving, after a little delay in San Francisco, at Victoria in 1858.

Mr. Moberly's work by which he will be best remembered was done in the surveys for the Pacific railway, which was the dominating political issue in the province for a dozen years after confederation. The first party of Dominion civil engineers arrived in Victoria via San Francisco, from Ottawa on July 10, 1871. Two parties, S and T, were sent to the coast to survey the route. Mr. Moberly was one of the surveyors. The difficulties of the survey up to 1873 had cost thirty-eight lives of the prospecting engineers, the total length of explorations made in seven years from 1871 to 1873 being 47,000 miles. Mr. Moberly had charge of the section between Great Shuswap lake and House and Eagle passes. He reached Yellowhead pass in September, 1872, and discovered the source of the Fraser river. In connection with his work in locating a route Mr. Moberly made discoveries which eventually led

Suits Grouped in Three Lots Form Strong Attraction for To-Morrow

The week-end in the Suit Department on the second floor will be of particular interest owing to an interesting offering of three lots of the season's newest Suits at very attractive prices.

Priced at Only $15.00, we will offer a number of trim Black and Blue Serges, showing the new styles at their best. The quality of the cloth is excellent and the values are decidedly good.

Par Example, one style is a stunning suit in Navy All-wool Serge, smartly cut and trimmed, with the high collar and belted back. Skirt is made in new flare effect.

Priced at $19.75 are a lot of smashing styles in Panama Cloth, Serges, Covert Cloths and Tweeds. Compare the values here with $25 and $30 suits elsewhere. The styles are among the most wanted shown this season.

Par Example there is a Black French Serge in the new cut blousy effect, trimmed with collar and vest. Coat made with belted back trimmed with silk buttons. Skirt flared from yoke.

Priced at $22.50 there are suit values comparable with ordinary $25 values. Gabardine Cloths, Serges and Shepherd's Checks are frequent in this lot, and the models show the most recent ideas of leading designers.

Par Example, one is a very smart model in the new battleship grey, in Gabardine cloth. Coat is cut in Russian effect and is semi-belted; collar is handsome high effect of black silk trimmed with buttons of self. Skirt is made with pointed yoke and flared bottom.

FREE DENTISTRY

To Those Unable to Pay

Due to the temporary depression, hundreds of deserving people have been out of employment and are consequently out of ready money. To these people I extend my services to the extent of stopping all tooth-aches and doing such extracting as is necessary, without charge or obligation.

Teeth Extracted Painlessly

By the application of a harmless botanical formula to the tissues around the tooth to be extracted, I so thoroughly numb the gums that I simply lift the tooth from the gums without shock or discomfort. By my system of "Dentalized Air" you do not even know when your teeth are being extracted, especially desirable in cases of children and nervous people.

is an art. It is accomplished from the experience of years, combined with the use of harmless botanical formulae. By my system of "Analgesia" I so thoroughly anaesthetize the tooth to be worked upon that there is not the slightest sense of pain. While the tooth is thus temporarily numbed, I remove every particle of decay and place my fillings or crowns so accurately that they will last a lifetime.

BARHAM RELEASED BY VICTORIA

CONCANNON ACCEPTS LEAF'S TERMS

Otto Nye Will Probably Sign With Seattle; Kippert Let Out by Raymond

A shakeup in the Victoria pitching staff was announced this morning when Wayne Barham, the former San Francisco pitcher, was handed his release, while Jimmie Concannon, of the Western Canada league southpaw, has accepted terms with the local club. President Kingham was not entirely satisfied with the manner in which Barham has delivered for the Leafs, and as the club is without a port side, it was decided to grab Concannon and let Barham go. The latter may sign up with the Seattle club, though this is not certain. Victoria is still after another right-hander, and the signing of this player may be announced in a day or two.

Tealey Raymond will probably sign up Otto Nye, the infielder who tried out with Victoria this spring. Nye worked out yesterday with the Victoria club, and as Raymond needs a third baseman, he may sign up Nye. The latter is a very promising youth, but did not have a chance to break into the present Victoria combination. Raymond announced the unconditional release yesterday of Kippert, the outfielder that he secured in trade for Charles Fullerton. Kippert will probably hook up with the Aberdeen club.

Chicago, May 14.—Harry Lord, former third baseman and captain of the Chicago Americans, who quit the club without notification last August, has been given his unconditional release.

BAYLEY IS WILLING TO MEET O'LEARY

Nanaimo Promoters Will Be Here To-day to Discuss Terms

Russ Leighton, the Nanaimo fighting impresario, is in the city to-day in an effort to get Joe Bayley's signature to a fifteen-round battle with Johnny O'Leary at the Coal City on Victoria Day. Leighton, accompanied by A. W. Madden, manager of O'Leary, says that he can guarantee a big crowd for the bout. As Bayley is quite willing to meet O'Leary, it looks as if the bout is only a question of terms. Bayley has been working out for some days, and will not be caught napping. The articles will call for 133 lbs., ringside, fifteen President Conksky announced yesterday Lord applied for his release yesterday saying that he desired to purchase a half interest in the Portland, Me. team, which is his home town. He plans to play as well as manage the club. Hugh Duffy, former manager of the Chicago Americans, is interested with Lord in the Portland venture.

Aberdeen, May 14.—Aberdeen defeated Tacoma yesterday in a close and exciting game by a score of 1 to 0. Score—R. H. E. Aberdeen..... 1 4 1 Tacoma..... 0 7 2 Batteries—Hughes and Lewis; Peterson and Stevens. Spokane, May 14.—Reuther had the locals on his hip yesterday, and Vancouver won 5 to 0. Score—R. H. E. Spokane..... 0 4 2 Vancouver..... 5 7 2 Batteries—Salveson and Altman; Reuther and Brotten.

Philadelphia, May 14.—The playing of J. Franklin Baker, who failed to report to the Philadelphia Americans this season, with the Vland team of the Delaware County league, resulted in the disruption of the Interstate Association of Baseball leagues. When the association voted in favor of allowing Baker to play in the league, Joe Rogers, president, and James M. Daley, secretary, resigned, and three of the affiliated leagues withdrew from the association.

Everett, May 14.—A movement is afoot to have the Aberdeen Black Cats meet the Vancouver club, of the Northwestern league, on a Sunday in the near future in Everett, the day to be designated as "Bus Glidings Day."

rounds being the limit proposed by O'Leary's manager.

It's a good thing for Len Holiday that Al Davies did not sign up for a bout last night at Nanaimo. Bert Hughes, the former Vancouver-Jentam, kicked Holiday around the ring for five rounds and then put him to sleep in the sixth. Davies never had a chance with Hughes, who led all the way. As Davies has trimmed Hughes on several occasions, Holiday was saved a real lacing.

Chicago, May 14.—Thirteen thousand dollars was the sum set aside for defeating Jack Johnson at Havana, the heavyweight champion told friends here yesterday. "Johnson received $30,000 and when I defend my title I am going to get the same amount of money he did," Willard said.

The champion handed Charles Cutler, the wrestler who first attempted to defeat him as a heavyweight boxer, a check for $1,250 as compensation for the Chicagoan's services. Cutler obtained a judgment against Willard in Milwaukee for $2,500, but when they met yesterday, a compromise was reached and Cutler cut the judgment in half.

LEAF'S BATTLE WAY TO THIRD VICTORY

Hanson Stopped Seattle and Locals Hammered Kelly Hard in Seventh

Wayne Barham pitched himself out of a job when he blew up in the fifth inning yesterday, but Elmer Hanson twirled his way into a regular berth by the big league manner in which he piloted the Leafs through a 6 to 5 win. The Giants went down to their third defeat of the series only after a valiant struggle, Victoria coming from behind in the last two innings, to win by a single run in a blanket finish. The game was a free-hitting clash, with Victoria leading the way in their usual style. The Leafs gathered in thirteen safe blows, Kelly's homer and Hanson's double being the winning counts.

Seattle pinned its hopes to Ed. Kelly, and the Victoria club swingers treated that perspiring youth to a terrific lacing. Kelly was handed a nice little lead to work on in the fourth when the visitors drove Barham out of the mound with a fusillade of hits. Four runs resulted from this fracas, but the locals never let up, and with Hanson in there twirling a grand article of ball, they took toe holds at the plate and hammered in enough runs to win. It was a pretty fight with the Leafs outgunning Seattle at the finish.

The defeat slides Seattle down to the foot of the league standing, while Victoria is tied for second honors with Tacoma, only a few points behind Vancouver. The Leafs are stepping right along, and if the Beavers slip a cog, they will take the pace without a doubt. Joe Tobin's work in left field yesterday was one of the features, "Little Ping" getting seven put-outs, and chucking a daring base-runner out at second after a pretty running catch. Menges starred at third base with some nice stops, while Butler and Nye also threw in some exceptionally good pickups that robbed Seattle of base hits.

Barham went along swimmingly for the first four innings, allowing but two hits. In the fifth he got rid of Cadman on a fly to Shaw. Kaylor just missed Bowcock's slam to right for three bases, and then Nye threw high on Raymond to third, and when Beatty hit to Menges, the latter threw the ball over Hoffman's head, Raymond scoring. Smith and Killilay followed with hits, scoring Kelly and Beatty. It was this inning that chased Barham, and the two poor plays given above helped things along. In the eighth Seattle chalked up another on Bowcock's single and Beatty's hit. Victoria hit Kelly in every inning, but did not get a run until the third when Hoffman and Barham singled. Kaylor's long fly sending Hoffman over the plate. In the seventh Hanson, Kaylor and Butler singled, the former scoring. Shaw's fly scored Kaylor, and Kelly's homer sent the Leafs into the lead. The winning count came over in the eighth, after Seattle had tied the score. Menges walked, was bunted to second, romping home when Hanson singled the pill over the fence. Killilay singled in the ninth, but got no further than first. Kaylor's hitting, with that of Tobin and Hanson, was the big factor in Victoria's win, Smith toping Seattle with three safe blows, two of them being infield taps. Geo. Kelly's homer in the seventh was one of the longest drives ever seen at the local ball yard, the cork centre clearing the Hotel Ritz sign with plenty to spare and was still rising. It was a homer on any ball park.

Victoria lacrosse star, who has been shifted from the defence to the home. McDougall is a nifty stick-handler, and should make good on the attack.

CLUB CLOSING DOWN.

Ottawa, May 13.—Because of lack of funds, after a checkered career, the Ottawa Amateur Athletic club has closed its doors. Organized in the '80's it was for many years one of the finest athletic institutions in the country. It produced some of the greatest athletes in Canada, including bicycle riders, football, hockey and lacrosse players, snowshoers, boxers and wrestlers.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Seattle Scribe Says They Are Weak Hitters.
It is now up to Portus Baxter, the well-known sporting dopest of Seattle, to cover up on the statement that he made a few days ago in his "pink," to the effect that the Leafs were weak hitters with the willow. Nineteen hits yesterday would indicate a little punch at the plate, while if our esteemed friend had taken the trouble to look up the league averages, he would have changed his views. Kingham's Klouters are simply hammering the cover off the ball, and Tealey Raymond is one manager who is wise to this fact. If Portus had said that our pitchers were a little shaky, we would have forgiven him, but that weak hitting was too much for us to overlook.

Victoria Tennis Club Boosts Popular Tennis.
By dropping the club entrance fees for this season the officials of the Victoria Tennis Club should add a great many names to their membership lists. Popular tennis is one move that will meet with public favor, and it is up to the local racquet enthusiasts to show their appreciation of this resolution. The courts and grounds of the Victoria club are second to none in the Dominion, so that this opportunity of joining such an organization for the yearly fee is one that should not be overlooked.

Eastern Rugby Star Falls.
George Ballard, the well-known Rugby veteran of Hamilton, is reported as being among the "wounded and missing" following the big battle at Ypres, in which the Canadians displayed conspicuous gallantry. Ballard was one of the cleverest and fastest quarter backs who ever handled the pigskin in his day. He was captain and quarter back of the University team, and afterwards played for the Eagles. He also assisted in coaching the champion Hamilton team when he retired from active participation in the game.

Texas Leaguers.
The tip off on Grover Cleveland Alexander is about this—he has enough stuff to carry that name without a wabble or a quiver. The expert who said that Victoria was badly shy on heavy artillery had probably forgotten to note the way McKenry and Kelly had adjusted their range.

AMATEUR BOXERS

WANTED THE COIN

San Francisco, May 13.—Arthur Kaufman of Brooklyn, national amateur champion middleweight boxer, and Matty Herbert and Arthur Nack, of New York City, were suspended from their amateur standing yesterday by George James, local representative of the Amateur Athletic Union registration committee. James has begun an investigation of an alleged demand for money for the men's appearance at an exhibition here.

The three boxers were competitors at the recent Panama-Pacific exposition national amateur championships.

A letter was received by the Olympic club trainer here signed "New York champs," asking for $100 for expenses, $35 for Herbert and $35 for the winner and $10 to the loser, for the appearance by the men at a club event.

James has summoned the men to appear before him. His suspension of them and his report on the hearing of the men will be referred to headquarters of the Amateur Athletic union at New York for action.

JUNIOR CLUBS' ENTRY TIME EXTENDED SPLENDID WORKOUT OF LOCAL TEAM

Vancouver Opens Amateur Lacrosse Season To-morrow; Twenty-Four Players at Victoria Practice

Only one entry, that of the Oak Bay Juniors, was received for the Junior league, at last night's meeting of the Victoria Amateur Lacrosse association, so it was decided to extend the time limit for clubs wishing to enter, until May 20. The Dowsell cup has been put up for the Junior league, and it is thought that at least four clubs will be entered for this competition. Several of the clubs have not had time to get organized, so that by next Thursday a much larger entry list is expected. The intermediate entry list closes on this date, also, and as there will be no senior league this season, it is expected that at least six teams will enter the intermediate section. All senior players who do not make the representative twelve, will be eligible for the intermediate league.

Vancouver opens the B. C. A. L. A. to-morrow at Westminster, and as the coast champions, the Vancouver club, will have all their old players in line, they should win. The Salmon Belles made a big bid for the honors last year, but were beaten in the last few games. On May 24, the Westminster twelve will play here in the first increase match of the year. The game will start at 1:30 sharp. Victoria officials have been proposed but no word has been received from Westminster on this matter.

Coach Springer had twenty-four players in uniform at last night's workout, and he is confident that Victoria will have the fastest club that has ever worn the colors of the local twelve. He is particularly pleased with the work of Jerry Bolton at centre, though Coutts is also showing up nicely in the net. Another practice will be held on Sunday morning. Those in uniform last night included C. Baker, A. Clegg, H. Menzies, C. Medrick, Coutts, W. Mitchell, R. McKay, Pierce, J. Dakers, R. McInnes, J. Petticrew, A. McDougall, F. G. Weaver, L. B. Noel, J. V. Johnson, A. McGregor, E. Taylor, G. Bolton, G. Menzies, F. Nobbs, F. Sweeney, Jeff-Baker, Geo. Bottinger and S. Okell.

Members of the National Junior Lacrosse club are requested to turn out to practice to-morrow afternoon at Beacon Hill at 2:30 o'clock. This is the final workout before selecting the team for the intermediate league.

Toronto, May 14.—"News" Lalonde has received an offer from "Con" Jones to play on the Pacific coast. He is not desirous of going west, but if he wishes to play for the Nationals he must consent to a reduction in salary, so he will probably go to Vancouver.

CRICKET UMPIRES MAY BE CHOSEN

League Officials Consider Plan; Schedule for To-morrow; Teams Selected

An important meeting of the Victoria and District Cricket league will be held to-morrow night at the Cathedral schoolroom, and the different clubs are earnestly requested to have representatives on hand. One of the important matters before the delegates will be the appointment of neutral umpires for the league fixtures. This is done in the old country leagues and it is thought that better satisfaction will be given if the plan is followed out here.

It is also announced that last week's matches will count as league fixtures. The card for to-morrow is an exceptionally strong one, the schedule being:

Victoria 2nd vs. Fifth Regiment, at Jubilee Hospital ground.
Garrison vs. Albion, at Work Point Barracks.
Civil Service vs. Five C's, at Albion ground.
Civil Service vs. Congregationals, at Heywood avenue.

The following will represent the Five C's in the match against the Civil Service, at the Albion ground, on Saturday: P. C. Payne (capt.), A. E. Lea, R. V. Lea, George Nicholls, G. Leeming, W. Kay, J. J. Fletcher, J. S. W. Clowes, H. S. Radcliffe, E. Cotton, H. Greeley. Reserves—J. Nicholls, J. Peakins, W. Moss and W. H. Carr.

The following will represent Victoria A2 in their fixture against the Fifth Regiment eleven, scheduled to commence at 2 p. m. at the Jubilee Hospital ground: P. Vaughan (capt.), T. Barclay, E. H. Hemmings, A. B. Laurence, C. C. Tunnard, L. Wyles, H. Giles, H. Lethaby, W. Evans, P. Welch, H. C. Manning.

The Albions are strongly favored to win the Virtue cup this year, and they should beat the Garrison, but it will not be by any means a walk-over for them.

Neither Civil Service or Five C's have won a league match this season, and the game between these two teams is likely to be an interesting one. The Civil Service being a stronger batting aggregation and excellent fielders, should win.

Congregationals and Civil Service play at Heywood avenue. This game should produce an excellent afternoon's sport. The Congregationals should win by a narrow margin. Both teams are well equipped with bowling talent, and the scores are not therefore likely to be very high. Heywood avenue ground is about the most difficult ground in the city upon which to score runs.

SPORTING GOSSIP

Mails was lucky to win yesterday's clash.

Vancouver took a game from Spokane.

The Leafs pounded out fifteen real hits off Mails.

House twirled nice ball after he got warmed up.

This boy should be one sure enough star, but has been unable to get started.

Kingham's Klouters are fattening their batting averages this week.

Spokane out-hit Vancouver, but could not bunch their blows.

The backstop fanned twice yesterday when hits meant runs.

Menges' hitting and fielding was one of the features.

Seattle got all the breaks, including homers with runners on.

Victoria had a couple of triples, but they drove in only one run.

That one run would have changed the look of things.

Haworth and Menges hit 1:00 for the afternoon.

The former has a bad charley horse in his right leg that will lay him up for a time.

Seattle's hitting shows that Victoria still needs a pitcher or two.

A good south paw would look real nice in a Victoria uniform.

Emil Frisk will help out in the Seattle outfield.

This old boy can still wallop the horsehide with runners on the sacks.

Jimmy Concanon will join the Victoria club this week.

This southpaw has been showing fine form with the Aberdeen club.

There was a large turnout at the Victoria Lacrosse club practice last night.

Frisk should be a popular hero in Seattle with his base hits.

Ernie Cotton has returned to the city

JUNIOR CLUBS' ENTRY TIME EXTENDED SPLENDID WORKOUT OF LOCAL TEAM

Vancouver Opens Amateur Lacrosse Season To-morrow; Twenty-Four Players at Victoria Practice

Only one entry, that of the Oak Bay Juniors, was received for the Junior league, at last night's meeting of the Victoria Amateur Lacrosse association, so it was decided to extend the time limit for clubs wishing to enter, until May 20. The Dowsell club has been put up for the Junior league, and it is thought that at least four clubs will be entered for this competition. Several of the clubs have not had time to get organized, so that by next Thursday a much larger entry list is expected. The Intermediate entry list closes on this date, also, and as there will be no senior league this season, it is expected that at least six teams will enter the Intermediate section. All senior players who do not make the representative twelve, will be eligible for the Intermediate league.

Vancouver opens the B. C. A. L. A. to-morrow at Westminster, and as the coast champions, the Vancouver club, will have all their old players in line, they should win. The Salmon Bellies made a big bid for the honors last year, but were beaten in the last few games. On May 24, the Westminster twelve will play here in the first lacrosse match of the year. The game will start at 1:30 sharp. Victoria officials have been proposed but no word has been received from Westminster on this matter.

Coach Springer had twenty-four players in uniform at last night's workout, and he is confident that Victoria will have the fastest club that has ever worn the colors of the local twelve. He is particularly pleased with the work of Jerry Bolton at centre, though Counts is also showing-up nicely in the nets. Another practice will be held on Sunday morning. Those in uniform last night included C. Baker, A. Clegh, H. Menzies, C. Medrick, Counts, W. Mitchell, R. McKay, Pierce, J. Dakers, R. McInnes, J. Petticrew, A. McDougall, F. G. Weaver, L. B. Noel, J. Y. Johnson, A. McGregor, E. Taylor, G. Bolton, G. Menzies, F. Nobbs, S. Sweeney, Jeff Baker, Geo. Pottinger and S. Okell.

Members of the National Junior Lacrosse club are requested to turn out to practice to-morrow afternoon at Beacon Hill at 2:30 o'clock. This is the final workout before selecting the team for the year.

Toronto, May 14.—"Newspaper" Lalonde has received an offer from "Con" Jones to play on the Pacific coast. He is not desirous of going west, but if he wishes to play for the Nationals he must consent to a reduction in salary, so he will probably go to Vancouver.

BASEBALL MEETS MONDAY AT Y. M. C. A.

The meeting of the Victoria Amateur Baseball league which was to have taken place this evening has been set over until Monday evening, in order that all clubs will have their applications in by that day, to secretary Spence. It is probable that Monday's gathering at the Intermediate, Junior and Middle League schedule will be drawn up. To date only two teams have announced their intention of entering the Intermediate division. They are the White Sox and Beacon Hill. Sunday morning at the Royal Athletic park the Senior League curtain raises. The Hapagos and Hawkins' Cubs will try conclusions. When the teams meet last Saturday the former club sprung a surprise by swamping the Cubs. All members of the Beacon Hill Intermediate club are requested to attend a practice of the club Sunday morning, when it is probable that the team for the league opener will be selected.

Toots Cameron leaves to-day to secure some Seattle entries for the holiday motor meet.

CRICKET UMPIRES MAY BE CHOSEN

League Officials Consider Plan; Schedule for To-morrow; Teams Selected

An important meeting of the Victoria and District Cricket league will be held to-morrow night at the Cathedral schoolroom, and the different clubs are earnestly requested to have representatives on hand. One of the important matters before the delegates will be the appointment of neutral umpires for the league fixtures. This is done in the old country leagues and it is thought that better satisfaction will be given if the plan is followed out here.

It is also announced that last week's matches will count as league fixtures. The card for to-morrow is an exceptionally strong one, the schedule being:

Victoria 2nd vs. Fifth Regiment, at Jubilee Hospital ground.

Garrison vs. Albion, at Work Point Barracks.

Civil Service vs. Five C's, at Albion ground.

Civic Service vs. Congregationals, at Heywood avenue.

The following will represent the Five C's in the match against the Civil Service, at the Albion ground, on Saturday: P. C. Payne (capt.), A. E. Lea, E. V. Lea, George Nicholas, G. Leeming, W. Kay, J. J. Fletcher, J. S. W. Clowes, H. S. Radcliffe, E. Cotton, H. Greeley, Reserves—J. Nichols, J. Peakins, W. Moss and W. H. Carr.

The following will represent Victoria A2 in their fixture against the Fifth Regiment eleven, scheduled to commence at 2 p. m. at the Jubilee Hospital grounds: R. Vaughan (captain), T. Barclay, E. H. Hemmings, A. B. Laurence, C. C. Tunnard, L. Wyles, H. Giles, H. Lethaby, W. Evans, P. Welch, H. C. Manning.

The Albions are strongly favored to win the Virtue cup this year, and they should beat the Garrison, but it will not be by any means a walk-over for them.

Neither Civil Service or Five C's have won a league match this season, and the game between these two teams is likely to be an interesting one. The Civil Service being a stronger batting aggregation and excellent fielders, should win.

Congregationals and Civic Service play at Heywood avenue. This game should produce an excellent afternoon sport. The Congregationals should win by a narrow margin. Both teams are well equipped with bowling talent, and the scores are not therefore likely to be very high. Heywood avenue ground is about the most difficult ground in the city upon which to score runs.

SUNK ON JANUARY 24; DAMAGED ON APRIL 7!

The Germans by this time must believe that the famous British battle-cruiser Lion, even as the cat, has nine lives.

Inspired by the German admiral's to make the best of a very bad set of facts, Rear-Admiral D. A. Meurer wrote an article for certain of the most influential journals in Germany after the naval engagement in the North Sea on January 24, saying among other things: "The British flagship, the Lion, became so severely damaged that she fell out of the line and the British admiral (Beatty) hoisted his flag on the Princess Royal. Whether another British battle-cruiser also was obliged to fall out of the line is doubtful, but it is certain that such a damaged ship was sunk by a German torpedo boat. This fact is asserted not only by the attacking boat, but also by a German naval airship." Rear Admiral Meurer was writing what he was pleased to call a description of the naval fight in the North Sea on January 24. In this engagement the British battle-cruiser squadron, under command of Rear-Admiral Beatty, sank the German armored cruiser Blücher and chased the rest of the German squadron home at full speed, several of the German ships, including two battle-cruisers, being very badly damaged. Meurer's article obviously was intended to be and was regarded as a semi-official statement of the German admiral.

On May 9 the German admiral issued a statement, and caused it to be circulated through the German wireless stations, to the effect that the naval engagement which was reported from several sources as having taken place between British and German squadrons off Bergen, on the coast of Norway, on the night of April 7-8, was in reality a battle between ships of the British fleet which had failed to recognize each other in the darkness, as the German navy took no part in any fighting on the night in question. The statement said: "The Lion was very badly damaged." Sunk on January 24 and damaged on April 7!

THE WAY TO TIPPERARY.

A Belgian of some standing, who has just arrived in London from Ghent, gives in the Daily Mail the following story:—It was in February, when the people of Ghent saw a solitary British soldier, well set-up and athletic-looking, being marched through the streets in charge of three German soldiers with fixed bayonets.

The British soldier was hatless, but he was smoking a cigarette with evident enjoyment. One woman ran out and wanted to give the soldier a cap, but the guards moved her away. That could not be allowed without orders from headquarters.

"Don't cry, mother, I've killed 25." All were sympathetic to the soldier, till at last one poor woman burst out crying at the sight of the prisoner. The soldier saw, took his cigarette from his mouth, and with a smile called out:—

"Don't cry, mother, I've killed 25 of them."

"What did you say?" asked the German guard.

And the soldier replied in broken French: "I was asking the way to Tipperary."

"Farther on, at the Kommandantur office No. 5," answered the guard, satisfied.

"I'm on to a good thing; I've started a physical training class for business men, charging a guinea for a whole year's tuition." "Far too cheap, old man; it can't possibly pay you!" "You don't get the idea. They all get sick of it and drop out in about two weeks. Then I start another class."

LIECHTENSTEIN

Liechtenstein, which has been boycotted by Austria for maintaining neutrality in the present war, will suffer other inconveniences, than shortage of food. Although an independent state, which never made peace after the 1866 war, the principality is combined for custom house purposes with the Austrian province of Vorarlberg; and the Austrian government manages the post, so that Liechtenstein is the center of philatelic business. The local courts are made in the first instance to Vienna, and in the second instance to the supreme court of Innsbruck. When a Liechtensteiner is convicted of crime, prison accommodation has to be hired for him across the border in Feldkirch. Liechtenstein has not enough crime to support a jail.

TAX RATE WILL NOT MATERIALLY CHANGE

Probability of Small Reduction
From That of Last Year

The city tax rate will not be struck till after the court of revision has completed its work next month. This is of course a necessity, because while the assessment on land is known, there may be sufficient objections lodged to upset considerably the figure of $1,702,170, returned by the assessor, and the tax rate has to be struck on the revised figure.

Assuming that a rate of 20 mills on the dollar is struck, after allowing deductions on those portions of the rate which are subject to discount, and that a mill rate would produce $80,000, the taxation raised from land would be $1,600,000, which is about $100,000 more than the estimated necessary revenue from land required in 1915. This is assuming that the figure approved in council on February 4 for the appropriations of the year is not materially changed. On that date the sum of $1,600,000 was taken as the basis of expenditure of the year, after the extensive pruning of estimates had been completed. As the revenue from various sources other than land is expected to produce half a million dollars (it was about $300,000 last year), it thus requires the citizens to pay $1,400,000 in taxes to meet the expenditure of the year.

The rate last year was so fixed that allowing for the deductions it was 20 mills net, but on a similar assessment a rate of 18½ mills net would be sufficient for the charges to be met this year. However with the decrease of some $8,000,000 in the assessment, the mill rate to balance the appropriations will be nearer 19 mills net than 18½ mills. Still it may be necessary before the rate is struck for some additional provision to be made for streets, etc., which would bring the total not far from that of 1914. Vancouver's rate this year is 24.44 mills gross, and 22 mills net.

Objections to the assessment roll will be received for another few days, the department being entitled to receive them until next Thursday.

The impression of the officials is that the promises made to the Civic Retrenchment association will be respected in the main, and that the levy on citizens will approximate closely to the intimation given early in the year. Local improvement taxes for the year, which are now all arranged to become due on May 31, are coming into the treasury slowly, and the revenue will not take an appreciable gain in this respect till a few weeks hence.

STOCKS WEAKENED IN LOCAL STOCK MARKET

Exceptions to General Softness Were Coronation Gold
and Glacier

Without stocks to induce buyers to take hold of stocks, the local list tended lower to-day, the majority of issues closing weakly. This applied to leading and minor stocks alike with but two exceptions, namely, Coronation and Glacier. The former went up to five cents in the bid, and in each instance the demand was prominent.

Even Standard Lead was forced to reflect the disturbing sentiment prevailing in leading security markets by dropping back noticeably, while Granite in Boston sold at 74 at one time during the day.

BEARS GAIN CONTROL IN CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET

Chicago, May 14.—This was a banner day for wheat bears. From the start of the session the trade and public seemed to discredit the alarming crop reports of the last two or three days. This helped to develop an over-optimistic market and a consequent uptick of a cent and a half over Thursday's close. The market was soon down from best quotations on current trading, and with one or two minor rallies worked lower and lower to an extent of four cents. Last trades showed little support, and excepting for chance possibilities of an over-depressed position feeling was bearish. Scattered advice indicated that export business is blocked by fears in the political situation.

DISTURBED STATE OF MIND HURTS ISSUES

Wall Street Sees Lower Range of Value and Irregularity To-day

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)

New York, May 14.—The market reflected a disturbed state of mind and the uncertainty growing out of the German affair. Liquidation occurred and in addition there was a substantial volume of selling by those who believe that a lower range of quoted values will be recorded. Taken as a whole, however, the list may be said to have given a poor account of itself. The action of Steel toward the close was not inspiring. Value appeared attractive for investment purposes, but it appears that political considerations are to continue to dominate things and therefore irregularity is experienced.

MONTREAL STOCKS

(Supplied by McDougall & Cowans.)

Montreal, May 14.—The continued slump on the New York exchange to-day had a depressing effect on this market, trading being almost at a standstill throughout the session. Stocks are closely held, and therefore no selling of any importance developed, and transactions generally were at slightly lower prices.

29TH BATTALION FOR THE FRONT TO-DAY

Departure of "Tobin's Tigers" Watched by Hundreds of People

Vancouver, May 14.—Tobin's Tigers have gone. They left this morning for active service, and for hours hundreds of friends and relatives stood in the heavy rain just to get a last look at their loved ones. They did not get a close glimpse because sentries kept the crowd back, but they were able to wave a hand as the Vancouver battalion filed by to the trains.

It was a scene which will become historical because for the second time in her career Vancouver has sent out a battalion, and this one bears her name. And they are efficient.

Tobin's Tigers departed without any triumphal march through town, such as was accorded the first contingent. There were several reasons for this. The first contingents from the city regiments had not been welded into a battalion such as the 29th, and completed their training at Valcartier. The 29th mobilized at Hastings Park on November 1, and from a collection of 1,100 men, mostly strangers to each other, has been evolved a battalion efficient in every detail. The men were given ample time to say good-bye to their relatives, and the order was given to depart from the sidings at Hastings. This was to avoid confusion and trouble, which followed the entraining of the first contingent.

But despite the general understanding that the departure of the 29th was to be private, hundreds made their way to Hastings Park this morning. The women folk were in the majority, and there were many tears.

The Canadian Mounted Rifles provided all the sentries, and strong guards were thrown across the approaches to the tracks, but the women were not too strict, and gradually the women got down to the railway where the men were lined up, waiting patiently in the heavy rain in full marching order.

Colonel Tobin was in command.

London, May 14.—Mobs of angry Britons this afternoon attacked a throng of Germans who were reporting for internment in East London and the police on guard were forced to charge the disturbers. Many buildings were wrecked and heads broken in the melee. Several Germans were injured slightly.

Five hundred rioters to-day destroyed 23 buildings at Gravesend, where an anti-German riot got beyond the control of the police.

Fresh rioting broke out in Westham late to-day. The property damage was estimated at $500,000. The damage done to property in England since Sunday as a result of anti-German demonstrations exceeds $5,000,000.

Newcastle, Eng., May 14.—Thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed in rioting here to-day.

Greenock, Scotland, May 14.—Hundreds of windows were smashed in anti-German demonstrations here to-day. Mounted police cleared the streets after a terrific battle in which a number of heads were broken.

Cape Town, May 14.—Terrific rioting broke out here this afternoon. The Royal hotel was wrecked because the manager was a German citizen.

Johannesburg, May 14.—Three thousand men, women and children renewed anti-German demonstrations here to-day despite the presence of thousands of police and troops in the streets. A dozen buildings were damaged and burned.

Milan, Italy, May 14.—Scores of persons were injured in anti-German riots here to-day.

TO-DAY'S TRADING ON THE WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, May 14.—Wheat futures opened steady, being 1/2 cent lower to 1 cent higher. Oats opened 1/2 cent lower for both months, and flax 1/2 cent and 1 cent higher for July and October. Prices were comparatively steady following the opening, the October month showing a tendency to weaken, which was attributed to the substantial rains reported from Saskatchewan. In cash circles there was a fair demand for numbers 3 and 4 grades of wheat, other grades in less active inquiry. Oats was as previously reported, all grades being in goodly request, barring No. 2 C. W. of barley all the grades were wanted except No. 3. There was no demand for cash flax.

The total inspection on Thursday were 155 cars.

The market showed weaker at the close on good prospects. Winnipeg wheat futures closed 1/2 cent to 2 cents down. Cash closed 1/2 cent to 3 cents lower. Oats closed 1/2 cent lower. Flax closed 1/2 to 3/4 lower. Cash flax closed 3 cents lower on all grades.

ADVANCING GERMANS WERE MOWED DOWN

Hayre, May 14.—The Germans' attempts to break through the Belgian lines at Dixmude were repulsed with heavy losses to the attacking forces, according to an official statement given out to-day by the Belgian war office.

At one point the German assault against a bridge held by the Belgians had been anticipated. A battery of machine guns was trained along the paths which the Teutons were compelled to follow, and when the assault was launched, the closely-massed Germans were mowed down under a murderous fire. More than 200 German soldiers were left dead.

WANTS CONTRACT ON LAND SALE FULFILLED

David Miller Sues Leon J.
Camsusa for Specific Performance of Agreement

A suit for specific performance of a real estate agreement was begun before Judge Lampman and a jury in the county court this morning the plaintiff being David Miller, of Angus Cambell & Company, and the defendant,
Leon J. Camsusa, of Peter McQuade & Sons, Ltd. The suit concerns the sale of six and a fraction acres of land on the fore shore of Saanich arm, seventeen miles out from Victoria.
Both parties, according to the statements made in court, applied to the Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway company for land, and both applications were accepted. For mutual benefit an exchange was agreed upon, and Mr.
Miller said he handed over a piece of his land and received only the same price for it as he paid to the railway company. When the negotiations were in progress he paid Mr. Camsusa $50 deposit on the land he was to get in exchange, but had been unable to get a conveyance from Mr. Camsusa. Both parties had built houses on their lots, and Mr. Camsusa had run a road from the main road down to his land. There had, said Mr. Miller, been a meeting of all who were interested in regard to the cost of the road at Mr. Camsusa's request, and as the road benefited Mr.
Miller he had been agreeable, he said, to pay some of its costs. After discussion he had agreed to give Mr.
Camsusa $500 for the six acres, to include a perpetual right of way over the road.
Mr. Camsusa last March had asked Mr. Miller for $200 and Mr. Miller had paid the amount after having Mr.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL AS RESULT OF RIOTS

Eight Foreigners Are Sent to Higher Court on Charges of Possession

There were several other cases heard in the police court to-day which arose out of the riots of Saturday and Sunday nights. Eight young men, all foreigners, were committed for trial on charges of being in possession of stolen goods. In each of these cases the value of the goods was over $10, so that they had the option of taking a jury trial, one before the county court judge or a summary police court trial, and on the advice of their counsel, J. A.
Aikman, they elected to go to the higher court.

There are now three men facing a charge of being concerned in an unlawful assembly, John R. Adams, Thomas Linton and Peter Billings. The latter two will be tried together on Monday and the former on Tuesday. The charge in each case is that "with divers other persons whose names are unknown they unlawfully, riotously and in a manner causing reasonable fear of tumultuous disturbance of the peace, did assemble together, and being so assembled together did continue to be so assembled together did continue to make a noise and thereby did disturb and continue to disturb the peace tumultuously."

Adams is being defended by R. C.
Lowe and was remanded until Tuesday without electing the mode of trial. The other two men chose a summary trial and pleaded not guilty, on which they were remanded to Monday.

Further arrests are expected of persons who were concerned in the riots;
quite a number of names having been taken by the police at the time.

The first case in which a preliminary hearing was held to-day was that of William Trentatello and John Kolleris.

Detective Murray stated that on Monday he and other officers saw the two men going up Johnson street.
Trentatello carrying a suitcase and Kolleris a bundle. In the suitcase was found a bolt of cloth and eleven pairs of socks, as well as papers belonging to and a photograph of Trentatello. The bundle carried by Kolleris was a roll of grey cotton. On his person, when searched at the detective office, were found a pipe in a case and a cigarette case.

Detective Carlow, who made the arrests and searched the men, testified that both men had made the statement that the stuff was given them by friends, but they could not give the names nor find the friends. He went with them to the Manitoba hotel, where Kolleris was supposed to have a room, but the man showed him the wrong room.

Moses Lenz identified the goods as his property.

W. W. Glass, of Schaper & Glass, identified a piece of cloth found in Kolleris' possession as his property, and an additional charge was laid against the accused in connection with it. Detectives Murray and Macdonald found the cloth in the room occupied by Kolleris at 563 Pandora street.

George, Nick and Thomas Raptis, George Kapis, James Falconer and Peter Marvaris were then put forward on charges of being in possession of clothing, pipes and other property belonging to Lenz & Lenz, Schaper & Glass and Lowenberg & Co.

Detective Carlow detailed the goods found in rooms at 448 Yates street, occupied by the accused. There were a blanket, a roll of blue cotton, a bolt of grey flannel, a piece of tweed and a clear-box containing a necktie, a handkerchief and a pair of socks in one trunk. In another trunk were four pieces of tweed and in the room were five boards such as form the centres of bolts of cloth or tweed. In a valise were three pipes, three pouches, one purse and one penknife.

Detective Murray testified that after bringing some of the accused to the rooms where the stuff was found,
George Raptis, as to one of the trunks, told him it was his, and that the goods found in it were his. Raptis, who told him he had stolen them in a raid. He had allowed Kapis to put the goods there. Of the other trunk, Thomas Raptis told him it belonged to Kapis, who had told him he had taken the things in a raid. When Epi-cormer was arrested a new tobacco pouch was found in his pocket, and he said Marvaris gave it to him.

Detective Marvaris found on the person of Marvaris when arrested a jack-knife, a leather purse, a mesh purse, a matchbox and an amber cigar-holder.

The respective articles were identified by Moses Lenz, W. W. Glass and Chas. A. Steele.

Mr. Aikman's cross-examination of all the witnesses was brief, and was directed solely to bringing out that there were riots on the two evenings, during which large quantities of goods were stolen from several stores and warehouses, that these were carried away wholesale, sometimes in motor cars, and that the riots were alleged to have been begun on Saturday night by soldiers in the Blanshard hotel.

A commitment was made in each case.

Esquimalt Police Court.—Magistrate
Jay held police court in Esquimalt yesterday afternoon and disposed of several small cases. A small boy was found guilty of mischief, and a girl of the same offence. A girl, who had turned out that both he and his mother thought the weapon a toy until it destroyed some stovepipes. The boy was allowed to go with a warning, but the parents will have to pay $2 damages.
A bicyclist, on a second charge of riding on the sidewalk, was fined $5. A motor car owner paid the same fine for failing to replace a lost rear number plate and using a card instead. A chauffeur who neglected to wear his badge in the front of his cap was fined $5.

Supreme Court Chambers.—In Hip-wood against Moody and in Allen against Cope orders for judgment were made in Supreme court chambers today by Mr. Justice Morrison. Orders for service out of jurisdiction were made in Commercial Investment company against Fallon, and in Edgar against Watson. In Meagher against the Granby Consolidated Mining & Smelting company leave was given the defence to file further particulars, and a change of venue from Grand Forks to Greenwood was ordered.

$5.

Esquimalt Police Court.—Magistrate
Jay held police court in Esquimalt
yesterday afternoon and disposed of several small cases. A small boy was found guilty of mischief, and a girl of
the same offence. A girl, who had turned out that both he and his mother
thought the weapon a toy until it destroyed some stovepipes. The boy was allowed to go with a warning, but the
parents will have to pay $2 damages.
A bicyclist, on a second charge of riding on the sidewalk, was fined $5. A motor car owner paid the same fine for failing to replace a lost rear number plate and using a card instead. A chauffeur who neglected to wear his badge in the front of his cap was fined $5.

IN USE TO-DAY.

Water from Sooke lake is flowing through the 42-inch conduit to the Humpback reservoir to-day, for the purpose of cleaning out the pipe and for testing. This is the first occasion upon which the concrete flow line has been put in use continuously, but it has been tested occasionally for the syphons which were specially reinforced for pressure. In two weeks the supply will be available to the city.

HEAVY FINE IMPOSED

Two More Chinese Convicted in Connection With Disorderly House Case.

Following the conviction of two white women and two Chinese yesterday on charges of keeping and being in a disorderly house on Fort street two more Chinese were tried in police court to-day.

These were Tie Kee and Ah Sam, both of whom had pleaded not guilty yesterday and had engaged the legal services of R. C. Lowe.

The case for the prosecution was proved by the detectives who made the raid and the women.

The defence was that Tie Kee, who runs an employment agency, had taken Ah Sam to the house as a cook, and a young fellow who said he had left the previous cook swore that he had left on Wednesday evening and notified Tie to bring another man in his place.

This did not hold together very well, especially after the city prosecutor had recalled the women, and the magistrate expressed his conviction that the charge had been proved. Tie Kee was fined $50 and costs or two months and Ah Sam $25 and costs or one month.

OBITUARY RECORD

The funeral of the late Thomas Aistle who died on May 10, took place this afternoon from the Victoria Under-taking parlors. There were a great number of beautiful floral tributes, and many friends attended the services, which were conducted by Rev.
Robt. Connell. The following acted as pall-bearers: Messrs. H. C. Stallard, D. C. Leister, H. Pauline, Geo. Jacques,
E. Williams, and R. H. Nuff.

The funeral took place this morning from the B. C. parlors of William Johnson, the fireman of the Marmon who died on his ship while coming from Tod Inlet on May 10. Services were held at 8.45 at the B. C. funeral chapel, and fifteen minutes later Rev. Father Macdonnell officiated at the service held at St. Andrew's cathedral. There was a big attendance of the deceased man's friends, including the crew of the S. S. Marmon and a number of former shipmates from other boats with which he had sailed from time to time. A delegation from the A. O. F., of which he was a member, was present. Interment was at Ross Bay cemetery, and the following acted as pallbearers: Messrs. A. Manson, G. S.
Creed, J. Tenbrink, R. Bassett, J. West and E. Read.

Basket Picnic.—B.Y.P.U. of the First Baptist church will hold a basket picnic to-morrow at Cadboro Bay near the unoccupied hotel. Those attending are requested to meet at the end of the Uplands car line at 2.30 o'clock.

Will Conduct Service.—Rev. W. G.
W. Fortune, D.D., will conduct service in the Congregational church on Sunday, when the subject of the evening address will be, "The War and Temperance."

RATES OF PENSION FOR SOLDIERS FIXED

Scale Which Country Will Pay to Its Wounded Heroes and Dependents

Rates of pension for men on active service and for dependents of those who may be killed have been fixed by the federal government, and entirely new rates substituted for those previously in the pay and allowances regulations. These rates of pension will apply to all militiamen wounded or disabled on active service, during drill or training, or on other military duty, where the disability is not due to their own fault or negligence.

There are four rates or degrees of payment, the highest being about three and one-half times as much as the lowest. The first degree is applicable to officers or men incapacitated by wounds or illness in action or in the presence of the enemy, the second to those equally incapacitated on other service, the third to those rendered to a small degree incapable of earning a livelihood as a result of action or materially incapable as a result of other service, and the fourth to those rendered to a small degree incapable as a result of injuries or illness while on drill, training or other duty.

Where the injury is great enough to require the constant services of an attendant, such as the loss of both legs or arms, or the loss of the sight of both eyes, or where the use of the limbs has been permanently lost, the rates for the first two degrees may be increased one-third. In addition to these rates married officers, non-commissioned officers or men may draw for the wife half the rates allowed for widows and for the children the full rates allowed. The widowed mother of a disabled soldier may draw half the rate allowed the widow of a soldier or officer.

The rates of pension are as follow:

Rank and file	First Degree	Second Degree	Third Degree	Fourth Degree
Sergeant	$204	$192	$132	$115
Squad, Batt'y or Co. - Sgt. Maj.	336	322	265	230
Squad, Batt'y or Co. - Q. M. - Sgt.
Color Sergeant or Staff Sergeant	372	352	296	260
Reg't Sgt. - Maj.
Master Gunner or W. O. or Reg'l	432	424	376	332
Q. M. - Sgt.	480	460	400	352
Warrant Officer	480	460	400	352
Lieutenant	720	680	560	480
Captain	960	900	750	640
Major	1,200	1,120	930	800
Lt.-Col.	1,440	1,360	1,120	960
Colonel	1,680	1,580	1,320	1,120
Brig.-General	2,100	1,960	1,600	1,360

Pensions may be paid to the widows and children or widowed mothers of those killed in action or dead from injuries received or illness contracted on active service, during drill or training, or on other military duty, at the following rates, according to the rank held by husband, father or son at the time of death:

Rank and file—$22 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Sergeant—$28 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Squad, Batt'y or Co. - Q. M. - Sgt. - Major—$32 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Color Sergeant or Staff Sergeant—$39 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Reg't Sgt. - Major, Master Gunner, or W. O. or Reg'l Q. M. - Sgt.—$49 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Warrant Officer—$52 a month for widow and $5 a month for each child.
Lieutenant—$57 a month for widow and $6 a month for each child.
Captain—$64 a month for widow and $7 a month for each child.
Major—$70 a month for widow and $8 a month for each child.
Colonel (Lt.)—$80 a month for widow and $10 a month for each child.
Colonel—$85 a month for widow and $10 a month for each child.
Brig.-General—$100 a month for widow and $10 a month for each child.

A widowed mother whose only son (unmarried) was her sole support shall be eligible as a widow without children. Where the children are orphans the rates may be doubled and the pension paid to legally appointed guardians. Pensions to widows and children are payable from the day following the death of the soldier, and a gratuity equal to two months' pension is to be paid the first month in addition to the pension. The pension may be withheld or discontinued should the widow be or subsequently prove unworthy, or should she be or become wealthy, the decision of the minister of militia in such case to be final.

The pension to a widow or a widowed mother ceases upon her re-marriage, but she will be eligible for a gratuity of two years' pension immediately after marriage. Neither gratuity nor pension is

ARE BRAVEST MEN THAT EVER WALKED

Victorian's Fine Eulogy of the British Infantry at the Front

A fine eulogy of the British Tommies in the trenches is contained in a letter written to his brother by Herbert Criddle Laundry, son of T. H. Laundry, of the Bank of Commerce. Signaller H. C. Laundry is doing field artillery observation work, being attached to the 1st Brigade, C. F. A. He says in part:

"The villages surrounding, and those through which we have passed, are in a terrible state, and the damage must run into millions and millions. There is one peculiar thing, as I daresay you know—there are hundreds of shrines about, separate buildings about twelve or fourteen feet high, containing a crucifix. Also in nearly every building is a little glass case inset containing a figure or figures of similar nature. 'Very rarely is one of these shrines damaged in any way. I have seen two large buildings absolutely in ruins, but the little shrine which was built between them absolutely untouched. On the 18th I was under about the hottest fire for about half an hour that I was ever in. We were observing from a haystack. All of a sudden there was a loud bang that shook the whole place, and I could feel the stack away. The splash that followed covered us in all kinds of earth and corruption and gave out a horrible chemical smell. 'A high explosive shell had landed about 30 feet away, just in front of our stack. The way we unlimbered the phones wasn't slow, believe me, and the officer and I broke all records for the 100 yards which lay between us and the barn we slept in.

"The next shell was a peach, and if we'd been 10 seconds later—well, we wouldn't have been at all. The third came quite close to the barn, as we again made a hurried exit to a redoubt—a dugout, which is pretty safe except against a direct hit. Of course the next beggar had to cut our 'phone line, and gave me just about the funniest sensation yet for about five minutes. Four burst quite close to me, and afterwards we picked up the base of a shell ten feet from where I had been standing. The whole affair didn't last long, but it delayed our lunch a bit, and rather spoiled the observation post.

"I think spring will soon be in this country now, although it still freezes at night, and two days ago we had a pretty rotten snowstorm. The other day I had the treat of my life—a hot bath—the first since leaving England, and lucky to get it at that.

"However, it's wonderful what a good system everything is worked on in the Imperials. They are the lads that deserve every particle of praise, and when this war is over it's up to every Britisher, American, or neutral, to take off his hat to a British Tommy (Reg. Imperial) as the bravest man that ever walked; especially an infantry man.

"They have certainly gone through hell and have gained all the experience for the benefit of the fresh troops under the worst weather conditions possible. I have talked 19 dozens. A couple of days ago I spoke to six left out of a battalion of eleven hundred. There are lots of regiments almost completely wiped out. There's a pretty good chance in this game and I hope the expected big bust-up will come soon and be over with."

ABSORBS THEM.

How long does it take an alien to be sucked up and absorbed? "A Briton!" "De Robeck," exclaimed a man in the morning train, who had read the name of the new commander in the Dardanelles. He scented an alien! Well, the admiral is the great-grandson of a Swedish gentleman who was naturalized in the reign of George III. Is that long enough? For you must remember that George III was a naturalized alien, and that George V.—the staunchest of Britons—is the finest exhibit of absorption. His blood is German, but his imagination is British.

HOW VICTORIAN FELT IN RAIN OF SHELLS

Private Hardman Gives Graphic Description of Life in the Trenches

Private G. W. Hardman, of the Fifth Gordon Highlanders, writes to his father as follows:

"On the night of Sunday, April 13, we worked all night and the twelve of us put in some 250 sandbags, repairing the damage done by the shells and improving the bad work of the French. It's not a bad way to spend the night; one can keep warm and it saves the disagreeableness of being turned out to go on sentry and 'stand to' at dawn.

Monday, April 13—After dawn there was a thick mist and we could move about and get out in front of the wire in perfect safety. Soon the sun broke through and it was a beautiful day. Chances of sleep very much spoilt by intermittent shell fire all day. Sharpshooting whistles overhead and explosions in the air and it positively rains bullets; its rather like the humming of a swarm of bees. Explosive shells also burst in the air with a loud explosion; they don't do much harm, but when you are just beginning to breathe freely again there is a sharp whistling sound, two or three seconds breathless wait, and a fragment varying in size from a peanut to a chunk the size of your foot lands in the fort, often 200 yards away. We had one man hit in the leg by a large piece. But worst of all are the trench mortars. You can't hear them coming. There is suddenly a terrific explosion on the parapet and sandbags, earth and everything else fly in all directions. The effect of this combined with not much food and lack of sleep leaves our nerves pretty raw, and often quite innocent sounds such as the dragging along the ground of a waterproof sheet will make everyone in the vicinity drop. Otherwise you hug the parapet like a fly, and take it all as philosophically as you may. But you've only to read the account of Neuve-Chapelle to appreciate the real moral and destructive effect of heavy modern shell fire. We worked most of the night. The nights are really only cold from 1 a. m. to 4 a. m. now.

Tuesday, April 20, was cloudy and pretty cold all day. Having collared a dixie I made a wonderful mulligan on the stove—we appropriated from the ruined village. The ingredients were: many potatoes, two packets pea soup, one bottle oxt, three times bully beef, three tins of army ration (i. e. cooked meat and vegetables) and salt. It was unanimously voted excellent.

"We were shelled as usual in the afternoon, the only casualty being one

Cornless Feet

Are Very Common Now

A few years ago they were not. People pared corns and kept them. Or they used an inefficient treatment.

Then the Blue-jay plaster was invented. That ended corn pain instantly for everyone who used it. But it also gently undermined the corn, so in two days it all came out. And this without one bit of pain or soreness.

One told another about it, until millions came to use it. Now those people never keep a corn. As soon as one appears, they remove it.

We urge you to do that. Prove Blue-jay on one corn. If you hesitate, let us send you samples free. If the pain does stop—if the corn does go—think what it means to you. It means a lifetime without corns. Your own friends, by the dozens, probably, know that this is so.

Hennessy's Brandy is the standard the world over. A dealer who displays Hennessy's Brandy shows he is a keen judge of quality. As he handles the finest Brandy, it is only natural that you would regard his other goods as of the same high grade.

If any article can establish a dealer's reputation for selling only fine quality goods, HENNESSY'S BRANDY in the windows and on the shelves will do it.

WAS APPRECIATED

Tribute to the Late Pte. A. Franklin, of This City: Gave His Life for Others.

The following appreciation of Pte. A. Franklin, a Victorian reported killed in a recent casualty list, has been communicated to the Times by Gerald H. Cross:

"I saw in your issue of last night, the name of Pte. A. Franklin amongst the killed in the last list issued, and also a short notice saying that he had joined the 88th. last August, going to the front with the first contingent. That is all that seems to have been known about him to most people. But I should like to bear testimony to his worth as I had the privilege to know him well. He was our milk boy, and such a bright, goodnatured, cheery soul, that it was always a pleasure to see him come around.

He had been in this country for about two years, and wanted to go home to his parents, but could not make enough money to manage it, and his parents could not afford to send for him, though they wanted him. He enlisted in the 88th, doing so with a keen sense of duty to his country, of which he spoke much, coupled with the hope of seeing his parents before he went to the front, and after, if all was well, to stay with them for their support and comfort.

"So he went home, and now he has gone to a more glorious home. In case this should ever meet the eyes of his sorrowing parents, it may solace them to know that in one section of Victoria, he was esteemed and admired, and they may rest assured of all our heartfelt sympathy. He gave his life (like many more) for others. What more could he do? He was only a milk boy, but we miss him, and it will be a long time before Private A. Franklin is forgotten in the parts that knew him.

ADMIRALTY BUYS LUMBER

Ten Million Feet of Dimension Timber Ordered Here for June and July Delivery.

The British admiralty has ordered through the British Columbia government 10,000,000 feet of lumber which will be cut at provincial mills for delivery in June and July. It has been arranged that the lumber shall be carried from coast mills to Great Britain by admiralty vessels carrying coal to British ports on the Pacific. The order has not been assigned to the mills yet. There has been a difficulty in regard to lumber orders that might come from England in that there is a shortage of ocean-going ships to convey the lumber. This difficulty having been overcome by the use of coaling ships, the authorities believe lumber exports for the admiralty may increase.

The timber ordered is 12 by 12 and up, and it is understood the mills have a sufficient supply to fill the order.

TO ASK FEDERAL AID FOR HARBOR BARRAGE

Member to Be Requested to Advocate Scheme Before Authorities

A drainage canal connecting the head of Portage Inlet with Esquimalt harbor and a barrage across the narrows at Sunnyside for the purpose of securing the adequate drainage of the upper reaches of the arm and for providing bathing-facilities above the dam have been discussed in Victoria for a quarter of a century.

Something along this line has been proposed by the unemployed committee to provide work for the men out of employment, and G. H. Barnard, M. P., has expressed his willingness to meet a deputation on the matter. In order to frame the suggestions to be made to him, the executive committee of the organization met yesterday.

The scheme which was most favored was the construction of a barrage across Victoria arm in the Burleigh district, with a dock or similar expedient for the passage of small boats or pleasure craft. This would provide the upper harbor and Portage Inlet with a real pleasure resort free from organic contamination from sewerage, a drawback which has been noticeable in the past, and for which the present northwest trunk sewerage scheme is under construction.

It was explained that by having a flood gate the flow could be regulated, and the contamination of the harbor which exists at low tide at Rock Bay, James Bay, etc., could be mitigated, while sanitary objections would be entirely removed above the dam itself.

The opportunities for improving the area above the proposed dam would be manifold, and the scheme would also relieve the unemployed situation, members of the executive urged.

Therefore it was decided to seek the co-operation of the federal, provincial and municipal authorities, and to ask the city council to appoint a committee to go into the question. The provincial authorities have already interfered to prevent further sewage contamination, but the tide fluctuations automatically move the material deposited into ditches to the detriment of public health.

MOVING PICTURES

First Examination Will Be Held on Wednesday Morning Next for Operators.

The first examination under the moving picture machine operators' by-law will be held on Wednesday morning at the council chamber, city hall, at 9 a. m.

The examining board is composed of City Electrician Hutchison, Fire Chief Davis, and Building Inspector Northcott. The by-law provides that the examination for license as an operator shall be in respect of the following subjects, and each subject shall be graded as follows: Practical knowledge, 40 per cent.; electricity, 25 per cent.; optics, 15 per cent.; knowledge of operating room, 20 per cent.; (construction, fire proof, prevention, etc.) general average, 100 per cent.

No applicant shall be entitled to a license if he falls below 70 per cent. general average, and he must make an average of at least 50 per cent. on the maximum marks for each subject. Examinations may be either oral or written, and practical demonstrations may be called for in the discretion of the board, and credit given therefor under the subject "Practical Knowledge."

One of the results of the operation of the by-law is that the possession of the certificate does not enable the operator to take a position elsewhere in the province. Apparently a new certificate must be obtained in any city where the operator moves.

The by-law sets up two classes, operators and apprentices, and provides that the latter shall not be left in charge of the operating room, and must work in the presence of and under the supervision of an operator.

BUREAU MANAGEMENT

Subject is Before Aldermen in Committee To-day.

The question of the future control of the Central bureau is before a committee of the whole council to-day.

Just now the bureau is suffering from the lack of a responsible committee to give advice to the superintendent, and to interest itself in the actual state of unemployment as it exists. The most cursory investigation is sufficient to disclose how deep rooted is the evil, and although the organization has been established many weeks, the bickerings in the late committee about details were such as to detract greatly from an established policy. Yet in spite of this, the bureau has done, and is doing good work, but it wants more encouragement and more support from the public, particularly in regard to the women's department.

It is some weeks now since the council was first asked to take the bureau over, so that an early decision should be reached.

The following colloquy occurred in a court of justice recently: Young Solicitor—Have you stated with the previous member of the conversation when you had with Mr. Blank? Witness—Yes, sir. Young Solicitor—"That, then, was the whole conversation, was it not?" Witness—"No, sir. I do not think I remember all." Young Solicitor—"What part of it don't you remember?" The witness's answer was lost in the laughter that ensued.

Misrepresentation is Defence in Action Being Heard in Supreme Court

Before Mr. Justice Morrison in the supreme court yesterday, the hearing was begun in an action brought by Lawrence M. Hart, taxi-cab dealer, against Cameron & Caldwell, of Victoria, claiming about $4,000 balance due on a number of taxi-cabs sold by the plaintiff to the defendants, who towards the end of last year began the operation of a taxi-cab service in Victoria. The plaintiff claims that the cars were sold to the defendants, the price for each cab being $3,000, and that part payment was in cash, and the balance was to be guaranteed from a percentage of the earnings of the cabs. This percentage was to be obtained by a registration check placed against the meters on the cabs. The plaintiff claims that the defendants after a short time discontinued the use of the meter, and that no check was made. He therefore demands payment now of the full amount unpaid.

The merits of the various brands of taxi cabs, the amount of profit from the taxi-cab business in Victoria, and the adverse effect the jitney business had on the taxi business were told by Mr. Cameron and Mr. Caldwell, who both claim a defence to the action.

That the cars were not as represented, and that statements made by the plaintiff prior to the purchase were incorrect.

From figures given the court and taken from the defendants' books the gross profits in the taxi-cab business for three cabs from November 12 until February 24 were $2,894.60, and the net earnings were $1,515.55.

The defendants claimed that neither of the cabs ran for fifteen consecutive days in the first three months because they were always in for repairs, and were held up while new parts were sent for. Defendants had paid part of the purchase money, but would not pay any more when they found the cars were falling to pieces. It has been represented, they said, that the cars were to have Timken bearings, which they had not. Against this the plaintiff's solicitor, Frank Higgins, produced discovery evidence of Mr. Cameron to the effect that he would not have Timken bearings at any price.

There was so against the evidence given for the defence that it was decided the stenographer who made the transcript should be called to read his notes.

When Mr. Cameron, sitting in court, made a remark, Mr. Justice Morrison suggested Mr. Cameron should take the judge's position and decide the trial. On another occasion "he told Mr. Cameron who was giving evidence that the less he said to the man opposed to him the better."

The defendants claimed that the meters on the cabs were not right for Victoria use, and that they had to send them to Seattle for alteration. In answer to the statement that they had to use the meter, they replied sometimes the driver would be offered a flat rate by a prospective customer, and would accept the trip. This would not appear on the meter.

Owing to Mr. Justice Morrison having to take chambers this morning and to leave for Vancouver the argument of counsel was set over until this morning's return to Victoria next week.

"I gave Walter a beautiful necklace of my own make for a birthday present," said Mabel. "Was he pleased?" "Oh, yes; he said its beauty shall be for no other eyes than his own. Wasn't it lovely of him?"

"I hear you've got a government job now," one man said to another. The other answered gaily: "That's so!" The first man gave an envious sigh, and asked: "Is it hard work?" Not after you get it," was the reply.
